Ganoderma strengthens your health, vitality and immune system!

Does Ganoderma lucidum have the ability to resist Coronavirus?

In medicine and science, the word “antiviral” often refers to the effect of “inhibiting virus proliferation”, rather than killing the virus. The real purpose of using antiviral drugs is to control the amount of virus proliferation and reduce the destructive effect of virus, so that the immune system can eliminate the virus without any concern and protect normal cells. So, your immune system is the most important way to defeat the virus.

Here are 9 health benefits of Ganoderma lucidum:

Antiviral:

Scientific research shows that Ganoderma lucidum has antiviral benefits and boosts the immune system. It is reported to exhibit direct anti-viral effects with herpes simplex virus 1, herpes simplex virus 2, the influenza virus (such as H1N1), HIV, enterovirus, hepatitis virus, vesicular stomatitis and more.

Antibacterial:

Studies have reported that Ganoderma lucidum mushrooms has antibacterial powers, with direct anti-microbial effects against the proceeding organisms: Aspergillus niger, bacillus cereus, candida albicans, and E-coli.

THE COMING JUDGMENT OF ALL THE NATIONS

Are Nations and Political Leaders Responsible to God?

Even if political leaders are atheists, Buddhists, Muslims, or pagans – they will all be summoned before the great white throne of God and given account of their actions.

Even though Israel is the only nation that has a covenant relationship with God, the Scriptures reveal to us that God will judge many peoples and nations for their many sins. Many nations will also be judged by God for how they mistreated his covenant nation Israel.

“I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat. And I will enter into judgment with them there, on behalf of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations and have divided up my land” - Joel 3:2

The United Nations divided up the Land of Israel back in 1948 when Israel became a state again after two thousand years. The United Nations Partition Plan for Palestine was a proposal by the United Nations, which recommended a partition of Mandatory Palestine at the end of the British Mandate. On 29 November 1947, the UN General Assembly adopted the Plan as Resolution 181 (II).

The resolution recommended the creation of independent Arab and Jewish States and a Special International Regime for the city of Jerusalem. The Partition Plan, a four-

THE GOOD NEWS:

God loves You! The Bible says, "God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but shall have eternal life"

1.The problem is . . . All of us have done, said or thought things that are wrong. This is called sin, and our sins have separated us from God. The Bible says "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." God is perfect and holy, and our sins separate us from God forever. The Bible says "The wages of sin is death."

2.The good news is . . . about 2,000 years ago, God sent His only Son Jesus Christ to die as payment for our sins. Jesus rose from the dead and now lives in heaven with God His Father. He offers us the gift of eternal life -- of living forever with Him in heaven if we accept Him as our Lord and Savior. Jesus said "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except by Me."

3.If you want to ask Christ to forgive your sins and be your Savior, and know for sure that you will go to Heaven, you can pray this prayer right now.

"Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God. Thank you for dying on the cross for my sins. Please forgive my sins and give me the gift of eternal life. I ask you into my life and heart to be my Lord and Savior. Help me to TRUST you and make you Lord of my life!
In Jesus name I pray, Amen."

If you prayed this prayer, the Bible (God's Word), tells us that when you pass away or when Jesus returns again, you will be saved and spend eternity with Jesus Christ! If you prayed this prayer today, call and let us know.

COMING JUDGMENT

part document attached to the resolution, provided for the termination of the Mandate, the progressive withdrawal of British armed forces and the delineation of boundaries between the two States and Jerusalem.

One day these nations will be summoned before God and will be judged for dividing up his land.

To think that God is not involved in the affairs of people, leaders, governments, and nations is totally wrong. God is intimately involved in the affairs of the world and even in the selection of national leaders, regardless of the religious persuasion - even among those who would call themselves atheists. God has an eternal plan for all the nations of the world, including Israel. The State of Israel is the only nation in the history of the world that has a covenant relationship with God.

Amos 3:1-2, "Hear this word, people of Israel, the word the Lord has spoken against you—against the whole family I brought up out of Egypt: “You only have I chosen of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your sins.”"

Moreover, God wants us to know that he is intimately involved with all the nations of the world.

Job 12:16-25, "With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his. He leads counsellors away spoiled, and makes the judges fools. He looses the bond of kings, and girds their loins with a girdle. He leads princes away spoiled, and overthrows the mighty. He removes away the speech of the trusty, and takes away the understanding of the aged. He pours contempt upon princes, and weakens the strength of the mighty. He discovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death. He increases the nations, and destroys them: he enlarges the nations, and straightens them again. He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. They grope in the dark without light, and he makes them to stagger like a drunken man."

This was the scene in Brussels at the EU parliament in the midst of the COVID-19 crisis. When Europe's COVID-19 death toll passed 100,000, with Spain, Italy and France and the United Kingdom the countries that have reported most deaths, the EU countries began shouting at each other demanding they pass the more than trillion Euro bill to stabilize the EU economy. Nations without God and his counsel disintegrate.

This is also true among the counsel of the wisest that causes them to fail. Such as it was with Ahithophel (2 Samuel 16-17), when you see the bravery of the boldest that sometimes forsakes them? It is because there is One working underneath it all for His own ends and to His own glory, as seems to Him good.

There was no one who could hold a candle to Ahithophel in his day as an able and famous politician. He may have been like the Henry Kissinger of his day. It is said his counsel "was as if a man had inquired at the oracle of God" (2 Samuel 16:23). Such counsel was a proverb in Israel in David's time. Matthew Henry speaks of him as "a politic, thinking man and one that had a clear head, and a great compass of thought." Perhaps David and Ahithophel had been friends from their boyhood up and are before us in Psalms such as Psalms 41:9; 55:13, 14.

Ahithophel, the wise and trusted counselor, however, was found unfaithful because he also thought of himself, and not of David. Ahithophel joined Absalom and advised the prince to take his father's harem (2 Samuel 15:12; 16:21). He advised pursuit of the fugitive monarch, but Hushai, another counselor, thwarted this move (2 Samuel 17:11)). Ahithophel was so disgusted over the collapse of his influence, for he

The Coming Convergence

Is it possible to know the day of our demise? Jesus chastised religious leaders in ancient Jerusalem for not knowing the time of His first arrival.

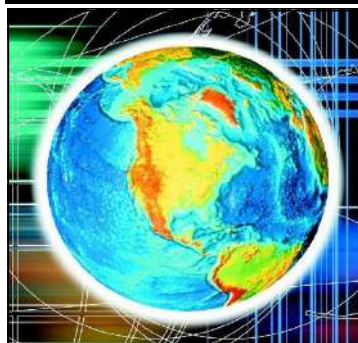

Will the prophesied final generation today make the same mistake? The Bible foretells that the end of days would be preceded by a sequence of global events that has never before occurred, but can this be proven? Through newly exposed geological and statistical evidence, a convergence of events has now been discovered that many believe finally prove the Tribulation is about to begin!

This whistleblower film breaks the mold of what a documentary can be by pulling you deeper into the reality of the approaching apocalypse as you follow the story of a young girl (Erin Hawkins) that is living through the end of days. Her cinematic interruptions throughout the documentary act as a warning to the genuine reality humankind will soon face. The conclusion of The Coming Convergence leaves such an impact that attendees during the film's theatrical premiere in California were driven to tears and shock. 1 hour 41 minutes.

Michael Youssef warns entertainment-driven church 'making people feel good all the way to Hell'

■(ChristianPost, 04/20/20) - Prominent pastor and author Michael Youssef issued a blistering condemnation of the entertainment-driven church, warning that the judgment of God will fall heavily upon the Church if it fails to return to His plan for discipleship.

"The Apostle Peter said that the judgment of God begins in the household of God, so we really need to start with the Church and begin to clean house," the 71-year-old founder of Leading The Way television ministry and pastor of the 3,000-member Church of The Apostles in Atlanta, told The Christian Post.

"So-called evangelicals have departed from the biblical orthodoxy and all sorts of falsehoods have crept into the pulpits. We've basically decided that we're going to choose which part of the Bible we like and which part we don't like. This is really all across the board; it's a very sad day for the Church."

Youssef, who has authored over 40 books and whose programs are broadcast in 26 languages worldwide, identified high-profile pastors who fail to address the reality of sin from the pulpit and instead focus on the "gospel of positivity" as particularly dangerous "wolves in sheep's clothing."

"They do it so sweetly," he said. "They smile as they do it and it's scary. You see this all the time: They are so focused on being positive that they refuse to talk about sin. They say, 'God doesn't really care about those things.' It's hard to hear from the pulpit that there is such a thing as sin and God redeemed that sin on the cross, but we need to confess and repent. It's much easier to hear, 'God loves you the way you are and you don't have to change, you don't have to leave your lifestyle regardless of how sinful it is.

The Church needs to return to a focus on discipleship, he stressed. "Right now, we basically have an audience. We're not making disciples of Christ — those who will study the Word of God and grow, not just in head knowledge, but to become more like Christ every day."

Youssef also cautioned against the idea that tragedies like the coronavirus pandemic currently sweeping the world will spark a "revival," emphasizing that revival will not happen unless "the people of God remove idols from their lives."

Hulk Hogan: 'God Has Taken Away Everything We Worship'

■ Celebrity wrestler Hulk Hogan relayed some of his spiritual insight pertaining to the COVID-19 pandemic, asserting that perhaps God might be making people rethink their values. In a Facebook post on April 6, Hogan featured a photo of himself praying up against a wall in unison with a caption of biblical proportions. Recalling the plagues of Egypt, which were designed to humiliate the pagan deities, Hogan said that our modern "gods," from sports to celebrity to money, have been taken from us by this pandemic.

"In three short months, just like He did with the plagues of Egypt, God has taken away everything we worship," Hogan began. "God said, 'you want to worship athletes, I will shut down the stadiums. You want to worship musicians, I will shut down Civic Centers. You want to worship actors, I will shut down theaters. You want to worship money, I will shut down the economy and collapse the stock market. You don't want to go to church and worship Me, I will make it where you can't go to church."

Hogan then quoted scripture: "If my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

Concluding his post, Hogan said that people should take this time of isolation to discover what truly matters.

'Lean on Jesus' in fight against COVID-19, Gov. Abbott says

■(REUTERS, 04/19/2020) - Texas Governor Greg Abbott speaks in an interview with Pastor Jack Graham of Prestonwood Baptist Church in Texas on his faith and response to the COVID-19 disease. Gov. Greg Abbott told the viewers they have "support you can lean on that will always be there for you, and that's Jesus Christ."

The interview took place during the church's weekend services (April 19). Graham thanked Abbott for leading the fight against an unprecedented crisis, the COVID-19 pandemic, and asked if he had a personal story of a crisis.

Abbott said his experience of the crisis in his own life was helping him lead in the crisis today.

"When I was just 26 years old, I suffered, literally, a back-breaking injury," Abbott explained to Graham, who is on President Trump's Evangelical Advisory Board. He said the injury left him paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair.

"It's a test of your faith," the governor said. "Why would God allow something like this to happen?"

"But," he added, "very importantly, I found in the aftermath, that I continued to reach out to God. I found God reach back out to me. And my relationship with God and Jesus Christ grew even closer after that accident."

Abbott said everybody is going through a testing and challenging time due to the coronavirus pandemic. But there is a solution, he added, and "support you can lean on that will always be there for you, and that's Jesus Christ, God Almighty."

100 Years After San Remo: How Modern Israel Was Born in an Italian City

■(JERUSALEM, Israel, 04-24-2020) - A major sticking point to Middle East peace talks is whether Israel is an occupying power or if it has the right to claim the land. But a closer look at history suggests that question was settled in international law 100-years-ago.

It happened on April 25th, 1920. Representatives of the Great Powers who triumphed in World War I met in the Italian town of San Remo to divide the Middle Eastern lands they had conquered. One hundred years later, the leaders of the Great Powers who came to San Remo are long gone. But their decisions made history and transformed the Middle East. For the first time in nearly 2,000 years, they called for the establishment of a Jewish homeland in an area called Palestine. Before its defeat in World War I, the 400-year-old Ottoman Empire spread throughout the Middle East. In San Remo — England, France, Italy, and Japan along with the United States as an observer — divided the empire into three mandates: Iraq, Syria, and Palestine. France would oversee Syria while Iraq and Palestine fell under Great Britain. The resolution also included the Balfour Declaration written by England's Lord Arthur Balfour in 1917 which called for "the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people." One English diplomat — Lord George Curzon — called it Israel's "Magna Carta." Zionist leader Chaim Weizmann considered it so important, he said the modern State of Israel was born on the 25th of April 1920 in San Remo.

It was adopted by the League of Nations and signed by 51 countries.

Exclusive legal and political rights in Palestine went to the Jews while those rights in the rest of the Middle East went to the Arabs.

Ambassador Dore Gold, an Israeli Diplomat and President of the Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs told CBN News the San Remo Conference "shows, in fact, the creation of a Jewish national home was widely backed by the international community way back then."

Gold believes the history of San

EDITORIAL

While the polysaccharides play a more important role for its antibacterial activity, the major antiviral constituents of Ganoderma species are both polysaccharides and triterpenoids.

Ganoderma polysaccharides and triterpenoids inhibit viral reproduction by interfering with their absorption, virus-hepatocyte fusion and endocytosis, also viral integration, assembly, and release. Currently available data suggests that Ganoderma lucidum plays a prominent role for the management of various infectious diseases.

Immune System Support:

Ganoderma lucidum may be useful in boosting the immune system. In studies on patients with advanced tumors, Ganoderma lucidum was prescribed for thirty days and the results found a significant positive effect on the immune system with an increase in T lymphocytes and decreased CD8 counts. Patients had fewer side effects from chemotherapy and radiation, and their post operative recovery was smoother. Research has also found that Ganoderma lucidum, when used on a regular basis, increases antioxidant levels.

Cancer Prevention:

It has been demonstrated that Ganoderma lucidum boosts immunity and fights the proliferation of cancer cells. Some laboratory studies have also shown Ganoderma lucidum may prevent cancer metastasis. The mechanisms by which the mushroom does this are as yet unknown and it seems they may target many different stages of cancer development. They may inhibit angiogenesis (the formation of blood vessels made to supply nutrients to the tumor), or perhaps they inhibit the migration of the cancer cells and metastasis. It is also thought that they work by inducing and enhancing apoptosis of tumor cells. In any case, Ganoderma lucidum extracts are already being used in some commercial pharmaceuticals to suppress cancer cell proliferation and migration. Studies on breast cancer cells have found that combining Ganoderma lucidum with green tea augments the mushroom's power to retard the growth of cancer cells.

Cardiovascular Health:

Ganoderma lucidum has been prescribed for centuries to people suffering from stress and angina. Studies in China found that Ganoderma lucidum promotes blood flow and lowers oxygen consumption in the muscle of the heart. Japanese scientists have made similar findings, and ascribe these benefits to a chain of acids belonging to triterpenes, a group of natural compounds known to reduce high blood pressure, lower cholesterol, and prevent blood clots. A Russian study also found that Ganoderma lucidum showed significant preventive abilities against plaque build-up on artery walls.

Antioxidants:

Ganoderma lucidum is a potent source of antioxidants. The Encyclopedia of Natural Medicine says it contains one of the highest concentrations of antioxidants in any food. Polysaccharide, polysaccharide-peptide complex, and phenolic components of Ganoderma lucidum have all been proposed to be responsible for their antioxidant strength. However, research has shown that the Ganoderma lucidum peptide (GLP) is the major antioxidant component of the mushroom.

Liver Protection:

Ganoderma lucidum is a favorite for use as a liver protectant. In one study of patients suffering from hepatitis B and elevated liver enzymes (SGOT/SGPT) and bilirubin, patients were given Ganoderma lucidum for three months. Within a month, significant reduction in SGOT and SGPT were seen, and three months later all values were within a healthy range.

Lower Cholesterol:

Ganoderma lucidum mushrooms may help reduce cholesterol by causing the liver to suppress its production. Researchers at the Nestle Research Center in Switzerland called Ganoderma lucidum "a renowned medicinal species". In their study, oxygenated lanosterol derived from Ganoderma lucidum "inhibited cholesterol synthesis."

Urinary Tract Support:

In a 2008 study of 88 men with urinary tract symptoms, researchers found that Ganoderma lucidum was significantly superior to placebo in providing symptom relief. As if that weren't enough, Ganoderma lucidum is said to inhibit 5-alpha reductase, an enzyme responsible for converting testosterone to dihydrotestosterone. This nasty predicament can lead to a swollen prostate and all the ills that go with it. According to a study published in the Asian Journal of Andrology, Ganoderma lucidum demonstrates more 5-alpha-reductase inhibitory activity than many other medicinal mushrooms and improves urine flow in men with mild-to-moderate lower urinary tract symptoms.

Ganoderma contains up to a million atoms and cannot be easily absorbed into the body; therefore, combining it with Vitamin Ester C improves Ganoderma's effectiveness. Research has been conducted into the Vitamin C's ability to break down polysaccharides and this is the reason why we need to combine the intake of Vitamin Ester C with Ganoderma.

TESTIMONIES FROM GANODERMA USERS:

SANDY D. - This winter is the first time that I have NOT had the flu, hay fever, runny eyes/nose etc. in my entire life. I usually am sick most of winter and buy endless boxes of tissues and antihistamines. I started taking the Ganoderma capsules in a low dosage and drinking the coffee. Now I feel so much younger, I can walk in my heels (been years) I have so much energy. I think so much clearer now. I don't have sleep apnea anymore. I use to have headache everyday (sometimes all day). I can go on and on. These products are incredible. I highly recommend them as a part of your diet. Prevention is better than cure. Thanks!

BILL T. - Earlville, IL — For over 10 years, various doctors have thought that I have MS. With multiple symptoms from pains, numbness to tremors, and many tests from CAT scans to MRI'S, it has been a long 10 years of seeing my body in a process of decay. In fact, 10 years ago, I began exercising and eating healthier to try and stop the degeneration, yet the decline in health has continued.

The beginning of March 2009, a friend told me about Ganoderma coffee. Being a coffee fanatic, and having tried quitting dozens of times, and with these MS symptoms, I was very open to trying something that might be good for me. The results have been amazing, and my story just keeps changing. My distance vision has gotten markedly better, I am thinking more clearly, no more afternoon dives after the coffee wears off, and my right forearm after 6 months of almost non-use, is now "working" again... thank the Lord! I also have bronchial issues that have been helped tremendously "coincidentally" by the Ganoderma in the coffee.

Another side benefit was losing 4-5 lbs. the first week of drinking the coffee. Having felt this way for so long and feeling 57 (I am 47), it is such a wonderful experience to actually feel my body go in a healthier direction, simply by drinking this healthy coffee. Thank you!!

SEAN K., Buffalo, NY — I have been suffering from a chronic injury for over a year with a separated shoulder. While landscaping last spring, I began to experience increasing pain in the area, compounding the issue further with tendonitis in the upper bicep region. My business partner blessed me by introducing to me to Ganoderma that has literally been transforming my life. Replacing conventional coffee with the Healthy Coffee, which contains Ganoderma Lucidum, has eased the inflammation in the shoulder and bicep, sustained energy levels throughout the day, aided digestion and has allowed me to trade the 9 to 5 grind for a full-time business venture that is growing daily. I have introduced the healthy coffee to many friends and family. ■

Overcoming the Problem of Failing to Become What You Are in Christ Jesus

2 Corinthians 5:17-19, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation."

The reason many new believers drop-out of church and serving the Lord Jesus is the frustration many experience when they become that New Creature in Christ – having old things pass away and exclaiming, "Behold, all things are become new."

Their most common complaint? Why is it so hard to live the Christian life?

The question we should all ask ourselves is, Am I what I became – a new creature in Christ? Have any of my friends and relatives noticed that I have become a new creation in Christ Jesus? Most believers find it very difficult to live the Christian life. The answer is that the only person who can live the Christian life is Jesus Christ. God made us a new creation in Christ, so that HE could live the Christian life in us.

In talking to many believers through the years, most cannot understand that after BECOMING a Christian, they find it so difficult to be the Christian that they've become. Most have never even been taught of the resources we have by the indwelling presence of our Lord Jesus in us.

1 John 3:8 tells us God's purpose in redeeming us, "...For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." He came to destroy the effects of the Seed of Adam in us.

The Bible speaks of two seeds, the Seed of Sinners by Adam and the Seed of Promise in Jesus Christ. Having been born as a son of Adam, we are born sinners by nature. We become a new creation when we are born again of the Seed of Promise in Christ Jesus.

Romans 5:18-19, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous."

Galatians 3:19, "Wherefore then serves the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator."

Galatians 3:29, "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

1 John 3:9, "Whosoever is born of God does not commit sin; for his seed remains in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God."

This is what God is trying to explain to us in 2 Corinthians 5:17 when he tells us, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." When we are born again, God's seed was planted in us by his Spirit, and that new Seed can only Produce Good Fruit, and the Seed of Adam can only produce Bad Fruit. Nothing good can come out of Adam's Seed, NOTHING.

Romans 12:2 puts it this way, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." This is how the new seed we have received is to transform us into becoming what we are in Christ Jesus.

Be ye transformed — The Greek word Μεταμορφωσθε, is the same as our English word metamorphosed: transfigured, appear as new persons, with new habits, as God has filled us with his Spirit, whereby we can now worship him in Spirit and in Truth, as how we are told the true worshippers will worship him.

metamorphosis: The life cycle of a butterfly includes a process called metamorphosis where each butterfly goes through 4 stages from an egg to a larva, then to a pupa, and finally, they turn into an adult butterfly. These 4 stages of a butterfly's life varies slightly depending on the specific type of butterfly.

It is similar in the life of a believer. We are as ugly as a cocoon, but God intends for us to become a beautiful butterfly. This is in reference not the to first work of conversion and renovation. In this sense these persons were transformed, metamorphosed, changed, and renewed already. But the believer continues to progress and grow as we carry on the work of renovation, the renewing of our mind day by day as we read and study God's Word. Every believer should be desirous of, and pray for, and make use of those means which the Spirit of God owns us for this purpose. The new creation in us should be desirous of reading God's Word, in meditation of his Word, in prayer, and in the ministration of the word - which is the reverse of being conformed to the world.

That you may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God; This does not refer to the secret will of God, which cannot be searched into, proved, or known, until time and facts work it out. It refers to the revealed will of God, as in the hands of Christ, which contains nothing but what is good. It refers to what we are taught in Romans 8:2, "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death." It refers to the perfect law of liberty which is to be proved and approved of by all the saints, who delight in it after the inward man. It refers to those who are daily renewed in the spirit of their minds, and proved, tried and approved of, even by all such who have their spiritual senses.

This is the reason why people who seek psychological help are so disappointed. If people have not been born of the Spirit and do not have the Seed of Christ in them, they are incapable of doing good. They only have the Seed of Adam which can only produce sin.

God tells us in Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word."

Many parents and those seeking help ask this question every day, "How can anyone seeking help correct their problem and keep their way pure?" And of course God himself provides us with the answer. By paying close attention to their manner of life and living their life in response to God's word.

God continues to explain to us in Psalms 119:11-12, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes."

When we begin to treasure up the Word of God and keep it stored in our heart, we are promised that it will keep us from sinning against God. The result will be a continual response to God of praise and worship. It will cause a person to want to learn more of God's eternal Word.

Unfortunately, because most Biblically illiterate Christians think that they can live the Christian life apart from God. They cannot. It is as if someone were to plant a peach seed into the ground, and then be disappointed that the tree did not produce oranges. The Seed of Adam can only produce after its own kind. We are told in Romans 8:7-8, "Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God."

Our natural mind is in fact the enemy of God. It is incapable to submit itself to the law of God. In the same way that the law of the nature of a Peach Seed is incapable of submitting to the Law of an Orange Seed, it is totally incapable of producing oranges.

This is why every human being needs to have the Seed of God planted within them.

1 John 3:9, "Whosoever is born of God does not commit sin; for his seed remains in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God."

Galatians 5:24-25, "They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." ■

could foresee that the insurrection against David was doomed to failure, that he went home a crestfallen man and set his affairs in order and hanged himself (2 Samuel 17:23).

Verse 25, depicts the mental condition of the leaders we see on the world stage today. "They grope in the dark without light, and he makes them to stagger like [a] drunken [man]."

Like blind men, as the men of Sodom, when they were struck with blindness; or "they grope", or "feel the dark, and not light". It is as if the leaders of the world have lost their sight, their senses, and their feet. They do not seem to know where they are, which way to go, nor how to keep on their legs,. The leaders and nations of the world reel to and fro, and are at the utmost loss on what to do. All this is said of the heads or chief of the people, in consequence of their hearts being taken away, and so left destitute of wisdom and strength.

The Bible teaches us clearly that God rules over the nations. What is God's Word today to the nations of the world? When God speaks to the nations, he is also speaking to us as individuals. God wants all to know that we are all subject to the sovereign rule of God over nations and individuals. This is taught throughout the Old and New Testaments.

God makes clear what he wants us to know in Daniel 4:17, "This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever he will, and sets up over it the basest of men."

The King of Babylon did not believe he was subject to God's rule over him. But after being subject to God's judgment, he came to realize that God indeed was the one who had placed him in power. We are told what Nebuchadnezzar had learned in Daniel 4:34-35:

"And at the end of the days, I, Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honored him that lives for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?"

What are you doing? That is a question many are asking today. What are you doing in China, Iran, Russia, the European Union, the United States, Israel, the Middle East? God, what are you doing?

God taught this lesson to Nebuchadnezzar in a very unusual way, and He is teaching the entire world a lesson today, in a different way. But the lesson is given, none the less. Whether leaders of the world and the nations they represent believe in God or not, all of the nations are in subjugation to the sovereign rule of God of Almighty God.

Note what God tells us in Job 12:23, "He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again." God is telling us that He makes nations great - and that He destroys them -- the Almighty Creator enlarges nations, and leads them away captive.

He lets the nations grow licentious. Filled with pride, with the fullness of bread, with extensive trade and commerce, they heap upon themselves luxury. But when, the cup of this iniquity is full, God destroys the nation, by bringing or permitting to come against it a nation less pampered, more necessitous, and inured to toil. Think of China, Dubai, the Persian Gulf states, we look back only to the 1990s when they were like paupers almost, but now busting at the seams with all manner of perversion. This includes all the nations, including the United States.

God often permits a nation to acquire an accession of territory, and afterwards shuts them up within their ancient boundaries, and often contracts even those. All these things seem to occur as natural events, but when Divine inspiration comes to pronounce upon them, they are shown to be the consequence of God's acting in his judgment and mercy; for it is by him that kings reign; it is he who puts down one and raises up another.

The European Union, Spain, Italy, are at each others throat. Not knowing what to do or how to come out of the dilemma they are in. The United Nations is wanting the nations of the world to pay a 10% tax (amounting to tens of Trillions of dollars) to help restore the mess the world is in now. Is this possible?

The key to the UN's survival has been one thing: Guilt tripping the United States. Suggesting that if the US failed to fund the UN it would lead to war and devastation throughout the globe. Financially the UN cannot survive without American largesse. Diplomatically it exists at the sufferance of the American government, occupying prime Manhattan real estate in defiance of economics and common sense. Had they put the General Assembly building in Newark perhaps the foreign diplomats would have all gone home by now.

2015 marked the 70th anniversary of the United Nations. The rap-sheet against it is very long indeed. In the rare moments when it is not paralyzed by factionalism, it is proving moral cover to some of the world's worst regimes. A sick joke of a place that puts Iran and Saudi Arabia on its Human Rights Council. If today American membership in the UN was put to a Congressional vote it would very likely fail. With that failure the UN would likely slide into the history books as ignominiously as the League of Nations did way back in 1946.

Our Lord Jesus declares in Matthew 28:16:

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

Our Lord Jesus is telling us that ALL Power, all authority, all dominion (Ephesians 6:12) ALL principalities, demons, angels who rose up against God and who look upon us as invaders, they see themselves as rising to defend their home and territory. All power has been given unto our Lord Jesus against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

This is a spiritual parallel of Israel coming out of Egypt, going through the wilderness to their inheritance in Canaan, but Canaan was already inhabited. The Canaanites rose up to defend themselves against those they saw as invaders. Who knows if the Canaanites knew that God had promised their land to Abraham and his descendants? Rahab seemed to understand this in Jericho, so it is likely that the Canaanites also knew these things.

Yes indeed, all nations and peoples are under the sovereign rule of our Lord Jesus. We are told again in Ephesians 1:20-22:

"Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And has put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,"

If the Holy Scriptures teach anything, they teach the subjugation of the nations, China - Russia - Iran - United States - European Union and all peoples everywhere; that they are all under the subjugation to the sovereign rule of Almighty God.

The fate of the nations is not left to the wisdom

The remarkable story of Donald Trump's family Bible and its connection to revival

Could a Bible sitting in the Oval Office be America's connection to a coming revival?

■Mark Ellis -

<http://godreports.com/2020/04/the-remarkable-story-of-donald-trumps-family-bible-and-its-connection-to-revival/>

The president and founder of Crown College, Dr. Clarence Sexton, makes note of the extraordinary provenance of the 45th president's family Bible on a YouTube video, wondering if its current place of residence heralds something significant coming to America.

In the late 1940s two elderly sisters, Peggy and Christine Smith had begun to pray for revival on the Isle of Lewis in the Outer Hebrides, approximately 50 miles off the west coast of Scotland.

"One was blind and one was humped over so badly with spinal stenosis, but they had a passion for revival," Dr. Sexton noted. "They wanted God to work."

Because of the two sisters' physical condition, they couldn't get to the church to pray or worship. "Their house became a place to meet; people came in. They had passion about revival coming to their island, the Isle of Lewis."

They persuaded their pastor to invite an evangelist named Duncan Campbell to come to their island and preach the gospel. He had been ministering in the area around Edinburgh, Scotland, and initially resisted the call.

It was only at the third invitation that Campbell accepted. Over the following years he traveled from village to village on the Isle of Lewis preaching the Word with power, and many people were converted, according to Andrew Woolsey's biography of the evangelist.

"The fire of God struck that tiny little obscure place off the coast of Scotland," Dr. Sexton recounted. The outpouring of the Holy Spirit between 1949 and 1952 became known as the Lewis Awakening or the Hebrides Revival.

"There was a teenage boy who got saved in it. His name was Donald Smith. The preacher became so dependent on Donald and so close to Donald he would ask him to lead in public prayers and help him with the meetings."

On the same island, a young cousin of Donald's, Mary Anne, grew up and immigrated to America in 1930, arriving one day after her 18th birthday.

Mary Anne came ashore with $50 to her name and worked for at least four years as a domestic servant, living with her older sister on Long Island.

She met a man named Fred Trump; they fell in love, and were married.

The two older women, who were her aunts, sent Mary Anne a copy of the Bible that had been used in a special way in the Hebrides Revival.

Fred and Mary Anne's fourth child was named after someone special that touched Mary Anne's life. "She was so impacted by this teenage boy that God used in that revival in the Hebrides, she named him Donald," Dr. Sexton explained.

"And she gave him that Bible, the Hebrides revival Bible. He was born in 1946. He is now the 45th president of the United States and that revival Bible is in the Oval Office."

Dr. Sexton is struck by the background of the Bible, and its possible connection to this historical moment. "I don't know how it all comes together, but I believe God is putting some things together to give us a window-just a window-if He could find some open people who know what the window is for," Dr. Sexton said.

"Could this be the time when the windows open, providentially, God has prepared the moment? And will we become the people of prayer, pleading with God — this is the plea — 'Will Thou not revive us again?' Will you be a part of that? Will you?"

Postscript: Duncan Campbell became a visiting lecturer at YWAM's School of Evangelism at Lausanne in Switzerland, and died while lecturing there.

"He was outspoken about two aspects of the work of the Holy Spirit. The first was that, in his view, a true revival was a move of God that affected, not only church members, but the surrounding community in a way that was visible to all parties concerned (work stopping, bars closing, crime ceasing, etc.).

"The second was the definite and profound experience of the baptism of the Holy Spirit subsequent to conversion. His practice in evangelistic meetings was not to make the usual altar call, but to invite people to come to another room to pray and seek God. In his ministry in Lewis, he sought to transcend denominational boundaries, but this was at times difficult.

"Duncan Campbell was, before everything else, a man of prayer and almost invariably started the day with a period of prayer and study of the Bible. He said, 'Revival is a community saturated with God.' Campbell witnessed firsthand the Spirit of God descending upon a community and learned to let the Holy Spirit have His way. In his own words, 'Seventy-five percent (of the people) were gloriously saved before they came near a meeting..... the power of God was moving!'" - Wikipedia

WORLD WATCH

Remo 100 years ago has been forgotten.

"That's part of Israel's problem. Why is it that it's fighting for its legitimacy all the time? It's because the international treaties and agreements on which the state of Israel is based have been forgotten," he explained. "Our role is to remind the international community what are Israel's legal rights. What is the basis for the legitimacy of the modern Jewish State and for that San Remo is pivotal."

Gold believes Israel's adversaries are trying to rob Israel of its right to exist by re-writing history.

"I think now people will have to learn this history properly and not allow some professor or some media figure to distort what went on 100 years ago. 100 hundred years ago it was clear as day that the restoration of a Jewish national home was supported by the majority of countries in the world," he said.

UN wants 10% of entire planet's annual income in fund for coronavirus response by Geoffrey Grider, www.nowtheendbegins.com/united-nations-wants-ten-percent-global-tax-for-dedicated-covid-19-coronavirus-response-recovery-fund/

■The United Nations Secretary-General, António Guterres is asking for a 10% global tax to fund a 'dedicated COVID-19 Response and Recovery Fund'.

The Bible talks about taxes, and when it does it is nearly always connected to end times events. Daniel 11 tells us that Antichrist will be a 'raiser of taxes', and it tells us that at the First Coming of Jesus Christ, there was a global tax in place. So it makes sense that one of the signs connected to His Second Coming, at the end of the time of Jacob's trouble, will be a global tax as well. The United Nations announced yesterday that in order to 'deal effectively' with the global coronavirus pandemic, a global tax of 10%, a tithe, needs to be levied. Well, hello Caesar, welcome back!

"And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

QUESTION: Why does God tell us that without faith, it is impossible to please God? Why doesn't God "prove" Himself to us so there is no need for faith?

ANSWER: Hebrews 11:6, "But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him."

God's design in creating us was always for us to have an intimate personal relationship with our Creator. Our relationship with God is similar to our relationship with others in that all relationships require faith. We can never fully know any other person. Proverbs 14:10 says, "The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy." We are incapable of even knowing our own hearts fully. Jeremiah 17:9 tells us that the human heart is wicked and deceptive, "Who can know it?" No one can ever truly know even their own human heart because it deceives even its owner. We do this through shifting blame, justifying wrong behavior, minimizing our sins, etc.

Because we are incapable of fully knowing other people, to some degree faith (trust) is an integral ingredient in all relationships. For example, a wife gets into a car with her husband driving, trusting him to drive safely, even though he often drives faster than she would on winter roads. She trusts him to act in their best interest at all times. We all share information about ourselves with others, trusting they will not betray us with that knowledge. We drive down the road, trusting those driving around us to follow the rules of the road. So, whether with strangers or with intimate friends and companions, because we cannot fully know others, trust is always a necessary part of our relationships.

God reveals Himself to us by His Spirit, John 4:23-24, "But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeks such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

God reveals Himself to us through His written Word — the Bible (2 Timothy 3:15-17, "And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise

unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

2 Peter 1:16-21, "For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

God reveals Himself to us through His Son - John 14:8-11, "Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake."

QUESTION: Is the COVID-19 virus a harbinger of what the tribulation may be like? It is hard to imagine the tribulation time to be much scarier.

ANSWER: There are definitely many storm clouds forming and coming our way in reference to the tribulation. The Tribulation Period is inevitable, as it has been decreed by our Lord Jesus. As we were standing outside our home in Oklahoma, we were under a severe storm alert and only a few miles away, we could see the storm clouds heading our way. We knew beyond any doubt the storm would be upon us quickly. As we consider the many signs converging upon the world scene, we know that the gathering storms of the tribulation will be upon the world soon.

- The Fig Tree (Israel) came back into being in 1948 (Ezek. 37; Matt. 24:32).
- Israel will soon be 72 years old; a generation is possibly 70-80 years (Matt. 24:33-35; Psa.90:10).
- Jerusalem is a problem for the whole world (Zech. 12:1-3).
- Religious Jews have plans to rebuild the Temple (Matt. 24:15; II Thess. 2:4).
- Trump's peace proposal is on the table (Dan. 9:27).
- The UN Sustainable Development Goals are designed to produce a world government by 2030 (Dan. 7:23; Rev. 13:7).
- Pope Francis supports world government and world religion (Rev. 13:7-8).
- Pope Francis has been accused of being a false teacher even by some leaders in the Roman Catholic Church (Matt. 24:11).
- Christians and Jews are killed daily in several Muslim nations (Matt. 24:9).
- Natural disasters are increasing like birth pains (Matt. 24:3-8).
- Several denominations of the Church have abandoned Biblical morality and embraced abortion, same-sex marriage, gay preachers, etc. (Rev. 3:16-17).
- Iniquity abounds (Matt. 24:12).
- Mankind has the ability to destroy all flesh (Matt. 24:22).
- Most of the Middle East is caught up in war (Matt. 24:6).
- Europe has reunited (Dan. 2:41-44, 9:26).
- Knowledge has increased with computers and the Internet (Dan. 12:4).
- The Scriptures will soon be translated into every language, and the Gospel is going all over the world by the internet (Matt. 24:14).
- The convergence of these signs is an unprecedented indicator (Matt. 24:33).

Jesus said, "So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. . . For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man" (Luke 21:31, 35-36). ■ and the corrupt nature of the sons of Adam. But if Almighty God holds the reins of rulers and nations — both good and evil, then of course, there is hope that there is a word from God to the nations whom He governs.

God's Word to All the Nations today is that they will be held accountable to the Just Judgment of Almighty God. God not only rules the nations, but he will also judge the nations. This is why it is written in Psalms 9:17, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." All of the nations are accountable to the just judgment of God.

The most graphic illustration of this is given to us in the Old Testament. This is a prophecy that deals with the nation that would come from Abraham in the land of promise. One of the reasons the people of Israel were held in bondage in the land of Egypt for such a long time - 430 long years, suffering oppression and opposition - is given to us in Scripture. It is recorded in Genesis 15:16: "But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full."

The Amorites, they were a pagan nation. Yet God was taking account of all of their sins. God was waiting until the scales were filled with the sins of this pagan nation to be complete. Then, and only then could God cast these people out of the land, and deliver them from the bondage of Pharaoh and bring His covenant people Israel in to the land of promise.

We must understand the accountability of the nations to the Almighty God. Yes, 10,000 times yes, God will and does judge nations and peoples. God will not wait for the Supreme Court of the United States to judge the United States or any other nation. He will not wait until the World Court decides to bring judgment. The International Court of Justice (ICJ), sometimes called the World Court, is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations (UN). The ICJ settles disputes between states and gives advisory opinion on international legal issues referred to it by the UN. Through its opinions and rulings, it serves as a source of international law. All the arguments of the separation of Church and State will make no difference whatever when God decides to judge the nations. God, and God alone, is judge of the nations.

But what was it that caused God to drive the Amorites out of their land? It was the abominations of the land that vomited them out. Can we see the same abominations in the nations today? And God used the nation Israel to drive them out. We read in Leviticus 18:24-

28, "Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: And the land is defiled; therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomits out her inhabitants. Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourns among you: (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you."

This nation was not a so-called Christian nation. They did not have Godly leaders or live by the Scriptures. But nonetheless, they were answerable to God's rule over the nations when they practiced every form of abomination, sorcery, occult and perversion. Following is a graphic picture of the nations today.

Deuteronomy 18:10-12, "There shall not be found among you any one that makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that uses divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch. Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God does drive them out from before thee."

We must understand the accountability of the nations to the judgment of God. God is patient. As he was with the Amorites, when he waited for more than 400 years until their cup of sin was full. The cup of the sinfulness of the nations is filling up fast, and the greatest judgment in the history of the world is not very far away. How bad will this judgment be? God tells us Matthew 24:21-22

"For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened."

Nations are also responsible before God for one more important thing — to hear the Word of God. Yes, that's right. China, Russia, the Middle Eastern nations, listen closely, you are responsible before God to hear the Word of God. You will be judged accordingly.

God, as the Creator of all things, has a right to address his subjects - whether they believe it or not. The Old and New Testaments are filled with this teaching. God gave a clear call and mission to his prophet Jeremiah. We read in Jeremiah 1:5:

"Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations."

Even though Jeremiah was a Jewish prophet, he was also a prophet to the NATIONS. One of the worlds four great world empires had sinned against God. Her cup was full as it was for the Amorites. And God proclaims his judgment upon Babylon through his prophet Jeremiah. God used Persia to do this.

"The word that the Lord spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces. For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast." - Jeremiah 50:1-3

We read about God judging another nation in the present day country of northern Iraq. I was actually able to visit that city of Mosul in northern Iraq and saw the ancient wall of Nineveh. There is even a shine to the prophet Jonah in the city of Mosul.

"Now the word of the Lord came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me." - Jonah 1:1-2

God had to force a reluctant prophet to obey God's commission. Jonah did not want to preach to these people. He did not like them. How do you suppose Nancy Pelosi, Chuck Schumer and their democratic followers would react to God's prophet today?

Jonah 3:2-4, "Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city [Nineveh was the New York City of its day] of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown."

Can you imagine the response if a man of God was spit out of the belly of a whale on Coney Island beach and was brought before the mayor

Reclaiming Lives -- Restoring Hope -- Sharing the Good News!

Our Russian Mission Director, Alexey, recently visited a Russian town in the remote region of Kirov. While he was there he was able to share a few Bible lessons with the people. This was the very first time these people have ever been exposed to having a Bible in their hands and actually able to read passages of the Bible. Moreover, they had someone there who was able to explain the passages to them. They were so overwhelmed with this rare opportunity to hold, read and hear the blessed Word of God.

They had so many questions for Alexey. Some he was able to answer and some he was not. He sent us questions the people asked him and we were able to provide him with the simple answers.

Alexey spent a few days there and helped some elderly people with many of their daily chores - garden - cut firewood - fix vehicles and more.

As he spent time with them, several of them shared to him one of the greatest needs the town has had for many years. He was then shown the terrible condition of the bridge and also the location where there used to be a playground for children. They told Alexey they had asked the government to fix the bridge and the playground many times but their requests have always been rejected. They told them there was no money. Alexey told them to pray and see if this was something God wanted to help them with.

Because of the bad condition of the bridge, the children need to walk to school about ten miles every morning and afternoon. Some children dare to cross the bridge, but because there are no handrails, it is extremely dangerous. It is impossible to even try to cross this bridge in the winter time because of the ice and snow. This Russian town in Kirov had a very bad snow storm the beginning of May this year.

After praying about it, the people contacted the government for permission to fix the bridge and playground. The government was shocked to see that people would actually take this project as their own, even if the government was not able to help.

We do not know yet how much the entire project will cost. We already sent Alexey about $600 to purchase some of things they know they would need to begin some of the work.

Above is the lot with the children's playground that has been in disrepair for more than fifteen years. There is almost nothing left. This village has continued to deteriorate because the factories have all closed down. The people do not have any money to fix it. Everyone has to grow a very large garden to survive in this area. Please pray about helping build a bridge and playground in this community.

Thank YOU!

It's because of YOU and your compassion and generosity that Today, the Bible and You is able to make such an impact in their lives. We appreciate EVERY donation and ask you to prayerfully consider lending your support by giving money or by praying for our staff and ministry. God bless! ■

INDIA — Dongza Thawng

April 2020 — Dear Prayer Partners, Thank you for your prayers and your faithful supports! We know what the whole world is experiencing just now. Very sorry about the victims of Covid-19 especially in the United States. That does not mean my country or my state is safe. Not at all. But in spite of this crisis, the saints of the Churches of America are putting mission priority and sending us supports without fail. This is really humbling for us and inspiring too. I participated in the prayer movement “5 reasons why we should pray for the United States.”

To me lockdown is such a blessing in disguise because I can work on my next book project. My WhatsApp articles for the last three years has gone to more than 500. The lockdown gives me enough time to sort out those articles into topics one by one. I have got enough material or articles for FIVE BOOKS (200 pages each) minimum.

Now I am working on the first one “Thirsty Souls” to be published this year. I am checking word by word and correcting it. Lot of work almost endless... But I really enjoy it. That is why I shaved my head. Who will bother to care for my hair? Below I am checking the manuscript.

Since we don't attend church or go out for ministry I write as I have been doing the last three years short articles every alternate days and posted on many WhatsApp groups. I am enjoying this literature ministry more than preaching. The WhatsApp messages are read all over India wherever Zomis are there.

During lockdown we run our home like a hostel or Bible camp. We do a lot of Bible Study time, Song practice, and prayer. We make schedule to be followed every day. We pray for missionaries, We pray against Corona Virus. We pray for USA and the president. We pray for our supporters. My wife is helping Levi and Jemima doing homeworks every day except Sundays.

Prayer Needs:

1. No word can express our gratitude for God's goodness: for good health, enough supply of foods, sufficient money to spend for basic needs. Thank you so much loving supporters!
2. Right now a relative of mine is illegally trying to take away my property. Something like Lot is quarreling against Abraham. I really need your prayers. Very disturbing!
3. Pray for my book project. I want to make the most out of lockdown.
4. Please pray for Levi. He is really struggling with his studies.

With love and prayers!

PERU:

In 2007, the Voice of the Rose of Sharon radio station began broadcasting gospel of the Lord Jesus to an area that was famine-stricken for the Word of God. Today, that single radio station has expanded to include TV programming on several channels and has produced over 200 congregations in different parts of Peru and various other ministries to children and adults but there is still a great need for Bibles and study materials. The Lord also opened many important doors with municipal leaders to our director in Peru, Wildoro Mendoza. The provincial governor asked Wildoro to be his spiritual counselor and they have organized days of prayer and fasting in local communities. Would you consider supporting this important work?

INDIA—Rose of Sharon Christian Schools and Home — Rejoice Kamei

This is one of the top-ranked schools in NE India with an attendance of over 800 children. Many of the children are orphaned, or are too poor to even pay for the basic books and uniforms. The students come from various religious backgrounds such as Muslim, Hindu, Christian and Animist (spirit worshippers). They are all taught in the English language and have Bible classes, attending chapel services as well. The school also conducts an annual Bible camp for the students and needs Bibles, study materials, and food for the camp. Afterward, a program for the parents and families of the students which includes a plan of salvation is presented. They also reach out with the Gospel and hold church services for the local villagers. Attendance is growing every year and so is the need for more uniforms, textbooks, classrooms, housing, bunk beds and benches for the students. Right now, there are about 70 students per classroom and there are not enough seats for everyone. A basic building (15 classrooms) will cost approximately $150,000. Will you help?

INDIA—Dongza Thawng:

In Shillong, India, Dongza has opened the Door of Hope ministry where the Lord is working mightily in his community. His ministry is growing so fast that he is currently looking to buy a new property so that they can expand their mission. Dongza holds Bible studies with college students and families, youth camps, vacation Bible school and crusades, and has also begun Christian couples retreats to heal marriages and a follow-up program for the new believers who committed their lives for Christ during salvation camp (many of whom are recovering alcoholics). He travels to nearby villages and reaches out to anyone the Lord sends his way with food and the gospel of Jesus Christ and has seen the hand of the Lord moving in a mighty way. Dongza and a missionary friend, Junus Khan, (pictured) also witness to Muslims and Hindus in the area. They have had several converts and are helping them to build homes and a new life on some land which was donated by a local doctor. They are helping them grow in their faith while hiding them from persecution. Please pray about supporting this mission.

BURMA — New Life Orphan Center and Grace Children’s Home

New Life Orphan Center founded by Pastor Khup Lam Thang (aka Thangno) and Grace Children's Home run by Zam Kap are two orphanages we support in Burma. All the children receive Bible training and basic education from kindergarten to university. They are taught Bible stories and Christian songs that will build their relationship with God. Two of the orphans have recently graduated from university. With their degrees, they could find good jobs, yet, they chose to serve the Lord by remaining in the orphanage to teach other orphans. Indeed, this is a testimony of how they want to repay the debt they owe to God.

of New York City, Bill de Blasio, so that he could be told that their city was going to be destroyed in forty days??? One can only imagine.

God gives us a clear word of judgment upon the nations. This is a message that leaders of nation are responsible to HEAR and HEED. This message is given to us through almost all of the Old Testament prophets. Perhaps the most eloquent is given to us by Isaiah. This is a judgment that is yet to come, the same judgment we read about in Matthew 24 - the worst judgment of all. In all probability, all the living leaders of the nations today will be involved in this judgment.

We read in the Book of Isaiah 34:1-5, "Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein: the world, and all things that come forth of it. For the indignation of the Lord is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he has delivered them to the slaughter. Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcasses, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falls off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment."

Even though we are not the covenant nation of Israel, as our Creator, God has a right to address us as a nation and as people. God is addressing the entire world with this Word from Scripture today - NOW - 2020. Even though God deals with each of us as an individual person, God also deals with individuals in groups of nations. We have seen throughout history, that one man's actions affect many. As we are told in Romans 5:12, "Wherefore, as by one man [Adam] sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:"

God also gives us the counterpart to that solidarity with Adam — Jesus Christ our Lord. 1 Corinthians 15:22, "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

It would be good for all of us to pray something similar to three of the great prayers found in Holy Scripture, from Ezra, Nehemiah and Daniel.

Ezra 9:6-8, "And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens. Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. And now for a little space grace hath been showed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage."

Nehemiah 9:1-3, "Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them. And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the Lord their God."

Daniel 9:3-14, "And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes: And I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments; We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments: Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. Therefore hath the Lord watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice."

What is God looking for today?

God is looking for the same kind of people as we read about in Ezekiel 9:4, "And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof."

These were different from all others who were involved with the perversions of the nation. They sighed and cried for all the evil that was being accomplished in their land. The cup of the nations of this world is filling up faster than ever before. What God is looking for, is those who are sighing and crying out to God for the wickedness that is part of our nation and world today.

It is time to pray as never before.

Proverbs 14:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." ■ all went to be taxed, every one into his own city." Luke 2:1-3

Of course, a lion's share of the money, should it be raised, will go to funding 'sexual reproductive health services', a Liberal dog whistle for abortion on demand. But can you just imagine what the United Nations would do with $8.7 trillion dollars, or even with one trillion dollars? Most can.

"Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries." Daniel 11:20,21

Population control advocate Bill Gates and his eponymous foundation are listed on the UN Sustainable Development 'partnership platform' meaning he gives them untold millions of dollars to 'carry out the work'. What is some of the 'work' Bill Gates is passionate about? Event 201, ID2020, the Certified Mark, and vaccinations that come with a digital ID. Yep, that's what the United Nations will do with monies raised from a global tax, vaccinate and chip the whole world.

FROM LIFE SITE NEWS: The United Nations Secretary-General, António Guterres, has announced the creation of a fund for addressing the global coronavirus pandemic - and he is simultaneously asking nations to contribute the equivalent of at least 10 percent of the annual income of the entire planet to a massive "human-centered, innovative and coordinated stimulus package" that would be administered at the international level. Although Guterres doesn't state it explicitly, he seems to be connecting the new fund, which he calls a "dedicated COVID-19 Response and Recovery Fund," with the massive stimulus package plan, announcing both measures in the same press release. If countries were to accept the plan, the United Nations or some similar coordinating agency would be given the equivalent of approximately 8.7 trillion USD, an unprecedented amount that would be 2,900 times greater than the UN's annual budget of 3 billion USD. The proposed plan would effectively place a global agency, presumably the UN itself, in charge of propping up the economies of the world during the coronavirus crisis, placing it in charge of 10% of global income.

Sea of Galilee is fullest it's been in 16 years

■(CBNNews, JERUSALEM, ISRAEL — 04/15/2020) - Fresh rain is continuing to fill up the Sea of Galilee and today it's the highest it's been in 16 years.

The Israel Water Authority reported that the water level has been rising at a rate of 2.5 cm per day and it rose by about a foot between March 23 and April 14. Right now, the lake is just 7.3 inches short of the "Upper Red Line." If it reaches that, authorities may consider opening a dam to prevent flooding. Israel's Water Authority predicted last month that they would not need to open the Degania dam in the southern end of the lake unless the region experiences "exceptional" rain in the next weeks.

"If there is one piece of good news in these troubled times, this is it: the Kinneret, the Sea of Galilee, is completely overflowing with water. This has not happened in 30 years!" -Ofir Gendelman

An overflowing Sea of Galilee means happy Israelis, #coronavirus or not.

Seed companies can't keep up as more Americans turn to growing their own food

■By Aimee Picchi, April 14, 2020 / MoneyWatch As millions of Americans hunker down at home, the coronavirus outbreak has led to runs on everything from toilet paper to baker's yeast. Now people are reporting another shortage: seeds to start their "pandemic gardens."

Some seed companies said they've temporarily stopped taking new orders after seeing an overwhelming surge in demand. The increase in orders is "just unbelievable," said George Ball, chairman of Burpee Seeds, a 144-year-old seed company in Pennsylvania. The company closed to new orders last week because it needed time to catch up, although it plans to start accepting them again.

With Americans largely stuck in place, many are turning to home-based activities that are boosting sales of home improvement goods, alcohol — and gardening supplies.

"If I had to put my thumb on it, I would say people are worried about their food security right now," said Emily Rose Haga, the executive director of the Seed Savers Exchange, an Iowa-based nonprofit devoted to heirloom seeds. "A lot of folks even in our region are putting orders into their grocery stores and having to wait a week to get their groceries. Our society has never experienced a disruption like this in our lifetime."

Other Americans are struggling to put food on the table. Feeding America, the nation's largest network of food banks, reported a 98% increase in demand. And the need may be most critical in rural America, reported CBS This Morning correspondent Janet Shamlian. Pantries in some rural communities are closing because food is scarce while the volunteers who staff them are concerned about their own health.

Seed Savers Exchange started to notice an increase in orders in mid-March. Demand spiked during the following two weeks, she added. For now, the nonprofit has also halted new orders while it catches up on the backlog. "We received twice the amount of orders we normally receive," she said, adding that the company of about 60 employees hired 16 workers to help cope with the flood of sales. While many Americans are buying seeds, Ball noted that there's no shortage. "Nobody hoards seeds," Ball said.

The timing of the pandemic hitting at the start of spring probably increased pent-up demand because consumers who are stuck at home are watching signs of spring and deciding to get started on their veggie patches. Gardeners are also helping each other gain access to seeds when they can't find seeds. Take Molly Jones who offered her extra seeds to fellow gardeners on Twitter.

Latin media a ‘game changer’ in promoting pro-Israel politics, combating Iranian-sponsored hate ■(JNS, Eliana Rudee, 04/23/2020) - In the last seven years, Fuente Latina has brought 300 Latino journalists and influencers to Israel, and facilitated 35,000 fact-based TV, radio and print stories reaching millions of Latinos worldwide. Their work has also resulted in two TV Emmys wins. Leah Soibel, founder and CEO of Fuente Latina conducting an interview. Anti-Semitism has often been described as a disease, and as the coronavirus continues to spread throughout the globe, anti-Semitic forces have sought to create even more infections: Jew-hatred.

Iran’s regime has placed itself at forefront of coronavirus-centered anti-Semitism, said Latin media expert Leah Soibel. She founded the U.S.-based, pro-Israel NGO Fuente Latina in 2012, the same year that Iran launched its Spanish language channel HispanTV, hiring correspondents throughout Latin America, Spain and the United States to “invest in generating anti-Semitism and fueling hate.”

China Bans Churches from Streaming Services, even during Pandemic

■(ChristianHeadlines.com, 04/07/2020) - Churches around the world are staying in contact online during the COVID-19 pandemic, but such an action remains illegal in China. The watchdog Bitter Winter reported April 5 that very few organizations, and “only those that hold state-issued licenses,” can stream religious services online in China.

“We can’t get together because of the pandemic,” an underground house church pastor in the province of Jiangxi told Bitter Winter. The pastor tried to stream a sermon Feb. 9 through an app, but was stopped. “Our first and only online gathering was blocked by the government soon after it started,” the preacher said. That same day, another house church pastor, in the province of Shandong, also tried to stream online services. “The meeting was stopped less than 20 minutes after the start,” Bitter Winter reported.

A 2018 Chinese law bans streaming services. “No organizations or individuals will be allowed to live-stream or broadcast religious activities, including praying, burning incense, ordinations, scripture chanting, holding Mass, worshipping or receiving baptism online in the form of text, photo, audio or video,” the law says.

On Feb. 23, the government-approved Two Chinese Christian Councils of Shandong Province issued a notice “demanding all churches in the province to stop live-streaming their services immediately,” Bitter Winter reported. On Feb. 28, the United Front Work Department of the Nanhu district in Jiaxing, a government organization, said it would investigate all online activities by state-approved churches. ■

Will the State Get Your Property?

If you die without a will and don't have any family, your property will "escheat" into the state's coffers.

Are you considering the future and what legacy you will leave with the resources God has given you?

Many of God's people want what the Lord Jesus has given them to continue furthering the work of God after they are called home. In their will, many choose to carefully share what God has given them with their family, but also to be generous with continuous service to God's work of faith. They decide to leave a bequest in their will to Today the Bible and You. This is something that can easily be done, taking simple language and incorporating it into their will. They are delighted to be able to continue to pour into ministries like Today the Bible and You, because they see the difference in reaching out through various ministries around the world..

If you feel God is leading you to support us in this outreach, a charitable bequest is one of the easiest and most flexible ways that you can leave a gift to further God's kingdom that will leave a lasting impact. A charitable bequest, put simply, is a gift you give to a charity through your last will and testament.

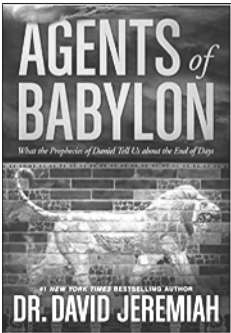

The benefits of a bequest include the following:

- Receive an estate tax charitable deduction
- Reduce the burden of taxes on your family
- Leave a lasting legacy to Today, the Bible & You

You can include language in your will or trust specifying a gift to be made to family, friends, or Today, the Bible & You as part of your estate plan. Learn more about making charitable bequests to Today the Bible & You by calling 918-279-1136.

Agents of Babylon

In his #1 New York Times bestseller Agents of the Apocalypse, noted prophecy expert Dr. David Jeremiah explored the book of Revelation through the lens of its major players.

Now, in the much-anticipated follow-up, Agents of Babylon, Dr. Jeremiah examines prophecy through the eyes of the characters in the book of Daniel, explains what the prophecies mean, and helps us understand how these prophetic visions and dreams apply to our lives today. Written in the same highly engaging half dramatization, half Bible teaching format as Agents of the Apocalypse, Agents of Babylon is not only an in-depth exploration of the characters and prophecies contained in the book of Daniel but also a dramatic retelling of Scripture that is sure to bring ancient prophecy to light like never before.

The Coming Convergence

Is it possible to know the day of our demise?

Jesus chastised religious leaders in ancient Jerusalem for not knowing the time of His first arrival.

Will the prophesied final generation today make the same mistake? The Bible foretells that the end of days would be preceded by a sequence of global events that has never before occurred, but can this be proven? Through newly exposed geological and statistical evidence, a convergence of events has now been discovered that many believe finally prove the Tribulation is about to begin!

This whistleblower film breaks the mold of what a documentary can be by pulling you deeper into the reality of the approaching apocalypse as you follow the story of a young girl (Erin Hawkins) that is living through the end of days. Her cinematic interruptions throughout the documentary act as a warning to the genuine reality humankind will soon face. The conclusion of The Coming Convergence leaves such an impact that attendees during the film's theatrical premiere in California were driven to tears and shock. 1 hour 41 minutes.

Dark Clouds Over Elberton

The True Story of the Georgia Guidestones

At Long Last: The mysterious 'R.C. Christian' who funded the massive Georgia Guidestones is revealed by Chris Pinto.

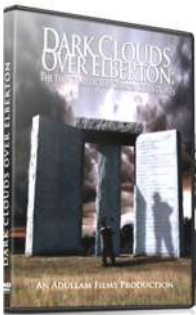

In 1979, a mysterious stranger appeared in the remote town of Elberton, Georgia. The man introduced himself as R.C. Christian, but admitted this was not his real name. He claimed to represent a small group of loyal Americans who wanted to erect a monument they hoped would inspire “the Age of Reason.”

The monument was named the Georgia Guidestones, and since its completion has spawned a host of conspiracy theories about who or what was behind it. Written on the great granite stones are ten commands or “guides” that were intended to provide wisdom for mankind. But the first of them calls for a reduction of the world population to a mere 500 million. In order to achieve this, billions of people would have to die. Many have wondered: is the monument designed to inspire wisdom? Or to launch a global genocide?

Researchers have wondered for decades about the identity of R.C. Christian and the purpose of his mysterious structure. Was he part of a globalist group? Was he working with the United Nations? After a five year investigation, this powerful documentary presents groundbreaking information, and dares to solve the mystery of who R.C. Christian really was.

This film is a must see for those who wish to learn more about the globalist use of environmentalism towards the cause of population control.

The Wormwood Prophecy

By Tom Horn. This book will challenge your interpretation of end-times theology and help you sharpen your understanding in light of current times. Does the Bible predict an asteroid... or something else?

Is the Wormwood star from Revelation 8:10-11 already headed toward Earth? Are NASA and high-level government officials aware of an asteroid that is on a collision course with our planet? Is that why President Trump sanctioned a colossal increase to planetary defense? Do the prophecies from ancient cultures and religions across the globe all point to a catastrophic event that has scientists and politicians taking extreme preventative measures under the public radar?

Earth is not currently prepared for the scope of impact that may be just around the corner, and people in high places know it... But what will the biblical Wormwood actually be? Traditional scholarly interpretation claims it will be an asteroid. Others postulate that the eschatological poisoning of one-third of all Earth's waters and the devastation of our planet's ecology might not be as detectable as we may believe: it could hit suddenly and without warning, like an angel of God appearing in the sky with fire and light, bringing judgment in an instant. Follow Thomas Horn as he blazes a trail through these questions and many others, posing answers that very few in the church today are willing to provide.

The Illuminati Protocols of Zion: The Plot Against Israel

By Doc Marquis. The Purpose of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion is to establish Satan as the Lord of this World, exactly as the Bible says he is. But, at this End of the Age, the Protocols intends to establish Satan as the replacement of God on the throne of the world, to be worshipped and obeyed as God! No other document in the past 2,000 years has continually set the world on fire more than the Protocols of Zion. Yet, a majority of people consider this Illuminati blueprint to be fraudulent. Marquis shall prove that, while the Protocols is NOT a Jewish conspiracy, it is an Illuminati conspiracy to take over the world for their Masonic Christ. The Protocols has already set the world on fire many times: 1) the Great French Revolution (1789-1799); 2) Russian Bolshevik Revolution (1917) that established Communism; 3) In 1870, planned Three (3) World Wars to stage Antichrist on the world scene. World Wars I & II were precisely carried out. World War III is being set up exactly as The Protocols envisioned, and will be the most bloody war ever; 4) Planned the attacks of 9/11; 5) Planned the global terrorism campaign now underway; 6) Planned economic collapse; 7) Planned the most murderous and severe global dictatorship history has ever seen. 8) Marquis will reveal other bloody plans. This DVD provides the only true understanding of The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion ever and is only possible because Doc Marquis is a former Satanist trained in the Illuminati Plan. You will never look at the news the same way again! 2-DVD Set nearly 3 hours long
