Is coffee good for those with kidney disease?

Kidney disease is a very torturing disease. For patients with high blood pressure and diabetes, they can go anywhere they like provided they take medications on time.

But patients undergoing dialysis cannot go anywhere they like. They need to go for dialysis 3 to 4 times per week. One session usually lasts for 4 hours. They cannot even drink very much water. So, kidney care is extremely important.

The kidney is a fist-sized organ located at the back of your stomach. Each kidney contains approximately 1 million kidney cells. These cells absorb back nutrients from the blood and remove excess water together with waste materials as urine.

Kidney or renal disease is also one of the most difficult diseases to cure. They include acute or chronic nephritis, diabetic renal syndrome, nephrosis and rheumatic fever. These may be due in part to a high cholesterol count and a high blood sugar level. The kidneys are overloaded and blood cannot reach renal capillaries. Nephrosis results, with edema, urine

The Stars Cry Out in Celebrating the Creation of God

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows his handywork. Day unto day utters speech, and night unto night shows knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them has he set a tabernacle for the sun. Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoices as a strong man to run a race."

—Psalms 19:1-5

Have you ever taken time to listen to the stars, the universe? God created them and wants you to listen to what they have to say. We live in an amazing universe. If we take a moment to think about our solar system. It takes one light year to cross it. The light-year is a unit of length used to express astronomical distances and is equivalent to about 5.88 trillion miles which is the distance that light travels in one year (9.4607 × 10¹² km, nearly 6 trillion miles).

Our solar system belongs to the galaxy called the Milky Way. A galaxy has billions of stars / solar systems. and can be crossed in about one hundred light years. Our galaxy is part of our universe that includes billions of galaxies. And we are told by scientists that we live in an expanding universe. God wants us to know that these stars are speaking to us every day.

THE GOOD NEWS:

GOD LOVES YOU! The Bible says, "God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but shall have eternal life"

1. The problem is ... All of us have done, said or thought things that are wrong. This is called sin, and our sins have separated us from God. The Bible says "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." God is perfect and holy, and our sins separate us from God forever. The Bible says "The wages of sin is death..." (Romans 6:23)

2. The good news is ... about 2,000 years ago, God sent His only Son Jesus Christ to die as payment for our sins. Jesus rose from the dead and now lives in heaven with God His Father. He offers us the gift of eternal life -- of living forever with Him in heaven if we accept Him as our Lord and Savior. Jesus said "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except by Me." (John 14:6)

3. If you want to ask Christ to forgive your sins and be your Savior, and know for sure that you will go to Heaven, you can pray this prayer right now.

"Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Son of God. Thank you for dying on the cross for my sins. Please forgive my sins and give me the gift of eternal life. I ask you into my life and heart to be my Lord and Savior. Help me to TRUST you and make you Lord of my life! Show me how to follow You each and every day. In Jesus name I pray, Amen."

If you prayed this prayer, the Bible (God's Word), tells us that when you pass away or when Jesus returns again, you will be saved and spend eternity with Jesus Christ! If you prayed this prayer today, call and let us know.

"For the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ" — Revelation 1:9

Dr. John Barela

"You are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

— Matthew 5:13-16

Beloved Fellow Heir in Jesus Christ,

2020 can probably be characterized by most as a year they never dreamed would be witnessed in our beloved United States of America. Starting quite normally, 2020 became highly disruptive and brought radical changes not only in our nation but also all around the world. We will never be the same.

But in the midst of all of this, we must remember God is in total control and is orchestrating the goings-on in the world. And that it is our job to be the salt and light of the world.

Salt makes us thirsty. Christ wants us to create a thirst in those who don't know Him. When unbelievers find the message of salvation appealing, they'll long to "taste and see that the Lord is good" (Psalms 34:8).

Light shows the way out of darkness. We are to lead men and women out of darkness into light, away from sin, and into the truth.

Like both salt and light, our relationship with God should have an obvious impact on everyone who comes in contact with it. Jesus isn't just calling us to be devoted, He's encouraging us to have an influence everywhere we go through our conduct and conversation. The Christian life is to be lived publicly, out in the open before men. You can't be a "secret agent Christian." As Christians and representatives of the kingdom of God, we are different from the world. We're responsible to keep that salty edge, to lift the lamp. Jesus said, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven" (Matt. 5:16).

And right now, our dark world is in desperate need of salt and light.

Jesus told us what the condition of the world would be like just before His Second Coming in 2 Thessalonians 2: 1- 12: "Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, ²That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. ³Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; ⁴Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. ⁵Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? ⁶And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. ⁷For the mystery of iniquity [lawlessness] doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. ⁸And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: ⁹Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, ¹⁰And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. ¹¹And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: ¹²That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness."

God is reminding us to REMEMBER what the conditions would be like just before the Second Coming of Christ. He reminds us that the powers-that-be would vehemently oppose our Lord Jesus and religious activities. This is why many government leaders have wanted to keep churches shut down during the pandemic. John MacArthur has stood against this move and so far, has won his court cases. Roman Catholic and Jewish religious leaders in New York also won a Supreme Court victory over the order by the governor of New York to keep religious services shut down.

As other world empires have done, leaders from Babylon to the Roman Caesar desired to be worshipped as God. God reminds us in verse 4 that the Antichrist will take his seat in the Temple of God demanding to be worshipped as God. Antichrist will not only claim to be God but will take the place reserved for God in the newly rebuilt Temple in Jerusalem.

The Falling Away

Perhaps the most striking trend in American religion in recent years has been the growing percentage of adults who do not identify with any religious group. And the vast majority of these religious “nones” (78%) say they were raised as a member of a particular religion before shedding their religious identity in adulthood. As part of a new Barna survey connected to their broader Religious Landscape Study, they asked these people to explain, in their own words, why they no longer identify with a religious group. This resulted in hundreds of different responses (after all, everyone’s religious experience is a bit different), but many of them shared one of a few common themes.

About half of current religious “nones” who were raised in a religion (49%) indicate that a lack of belief led them to move away from religion. This includes many respondents who mention “science” as the reason they do not believe in religious teachings. This is why friend, it is so important for believers to allow Christ in them to be used as the salt and light of the world.

Our Lord Jesus knew what it would be like living in the last days at the close of this age.

The Great Reset

The Great Reset has been labeled a conspiracy theory and parts of it sound like a conspiracy theory, but everything we know about it comes from the global elites themselves, who have been quite open about it.

"This is not a conspiracy theory. This is a well-documented movement among many of the world's most powerful people," says Justin Haskins, the Editorial Director at The Heartland Institute and a leading authority on the Great Reset said, "Fundamentally, this is a radical and complete transformation of everything that we do in our society," Haskins adds, "It will change the way businesses are evaluated, it will coerce businesses to pursue left-wing causes."

The Great Reset was unveiled at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland, where many of the world's most powerful people go to offer solutions to the world's problems. They have said that the coronavirus pandemic provided a historic opportunity to change the way the world operates.

WEF MEETS AGAIN THIS MONTH – JANUARY 2021:
COVID-19 Pandemic as an 'Opportunity' to Change Everything

A World Economic Forum video warns, "Right now we're facing a crisis of international proportions. It's going to have a long-term impact on us." And their solution is essentially global socialism. Think of the Green New Deal combined with the COVID-19 lockdown restrictions and throw in something called the Fourth Industrial Revolution, in which technology is supposed to radically change the way we live and work.

Klaus Schwab, the founder of the World Economic Forum says the Fourth Industrial Revolution will lead to "...a fusion of our physical, our digital and our biological identities." It has the support not only of world leaders but of global corporations like Mastercard and BP and is brought to you by people who think they know what's best for you. Haskins says "The elites, the technocrats in society, the most educated people," see the chance to "control and manipulate society, pull the levers in society so that it's, in their minds, perfect."

But a Trump reelection would blow a massive hole in the Great Reset. One week before the election, Italian Archbishop Carlo Maria Vigano wrote an open letter to the President, warning him that the Great Reset is "inhuman faceless tyranny" that seeks to "subdue all of humanity," and that President Trump and the United States are the wall against "the deep state, the final assault of the children of darkness."

"Over the past four years, Donald Trump has been the single greatest road-block for people who are pushing this internationalist globalist sort of agenda," Haskins says.

Each person, at the end of their days here on earth, will give an account of the lives they lived while here. Each person will be responsible for where they spend their eternity. It will either be Heaven, or Hell, and no other option is on the table. They are more concerned about worldly things rather than what lies ahead for them in eternity. Satan is doing his part in drawing away souls from the truth, and leading them to destruction. Our Lord Jesus warned that more would accept Satan’s lies than those who would follow Him on the narrow path (Matthew 7:13-14, “Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: 14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.”).

There are those who believe they will end up in Heaven because they were “good” people. Being good doesn’t wash away the sins of anyone. Only the blood of our Lord Jesus can wash our sins away, and only asking him to forgive our sins will remove the very thing that is separating us from a holy God. 1 John 17-:9, “ . . . the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”

Everyone must repent and turn from their selfish godless life to the only salvation God has provided. Scripture reveals to us how blind the heart of every human being is. Even the apostles didn’t fully know who the Lord Jesus was. The apostle Thomas asks Jesus toward the end of his earthly ministry, “Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” (John 14:5-6)

God’s Word was and is meant to give true and solid instructions for all to be able to have eternal life in Heaven. He didn’t give it in a code that only certain people could understand, and He even sent His own Son, Jesus, to give the only sacrifice for our sins – my sins – that could satisfy God’s demand for payment for our sins, as he tells us in 1 John 2:2, “And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.” The word propitiation means, “to satisfy God’s demand.”

Satan would love for all of us to listen to his antichrists and false prophets and be drawn away from the Savior. We read of the devil’s hatred of our belief in the Lord Jesus in Luke 8:11-12, “Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.”

Every believer I have ever known, including myself, has had difficulty reading or even listening to the Word of God. We have all fallen asleep, or had our minds wander away from the Bible text we are reading. This is not by

John Kerry Talks 'Great Reset': 'We're at the Dawn of Extremely Exciting Time'

Global political elites like European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen and former Secretary of State John Kerry view Democrat Joe Biden as a driver of World Economic Forum's "The Great Reset" mission that seeks major transformation of the world's economy.

■In a panel discussion by the World Economic Forum, Kerry said Biden is ready to rejoin the Paris Climate Agreement — which threatens to eliminate more than a million American jobs — and be a driver of the "Great Reset" whereby unelected global bureaucrats are looking to alter the world's economy by abolishing money, private property, and democracy for the sake of a "New World Order," according to James Delingpole.

"The notion of a reset is more important than ever before," Kerry said. "I personally believe ... we're at the dawn of an extremely exciting time."

Kerry said the U.S. rejoining the job-killing, industry-gutting Paris Climate Agreement is "not enough."

"I know Joe Biden believes this. It's not enough just to rejoin [the Paris Climate Agreement] for the United States. It's not enough for us to do just the minimum of what [the agreement] requires," Kerry said. He went on:

The Biden administration will focus on every sector of the American economy. There will be a 2035 goal to achieve net neutrality with respect to power and production ... we're ready to come back in and help to lead and raise the ambition in Glasgow to accelerate this incredible capacity for a transformation in the private sector.

Von der Leyen said the European Commission looks forward to Biden rejoining the U.S. to the Paris Climate Agreement, calling the former vice president "President-Elect" and a "friend in the White House." Part of this new cooperation between a Biden White House and the European Commission, according to von der Leyen, includes writing "a new rulebook for the digital economy and the digital society." She said:

So, covering everything from data to infrastructure, but also talking about security and democracy, technology to fair taxation — all of these are topics are on the table with digital change. So ladies and gentlemen, the need for global cooperation and this acceleration of change will both be drivers of the Great Reset. And I see this as an unprecedented opportunity.

It's good to have a friend in the White House. We should not forget what kind of strength we can develop... we need a new agenda and of course, we will have to start with the most pressing issue which is COVID-19... the second big topic is climate change, fighting climate change... the third topic is the tech topic.

Biden already adopted the World Economic Forum's "Build Back Better" slogan used for the Great Reset by using the phrase on the campaign trail this year.

Kerry also admitted that the rise of the nationalist-populist movement around the world is "a reflection of the inability of democratic governments in many parts of the world to deliver" on issues facing citizens.

"What astounds me is that as many people still voted for the level of chaos and breach of law and order and breaking the standards and ... I think that, the underlying reason for that is something that everybody has to examine," Kerry said of the more than 71 million Americans who voted for Trump in the November presidential election.

"I think Europe has to look at that with Brexit and the rising national populism — nationalistic populism. Which is really one of the priorities that we all have to address. You can't dismiss it," Kerry said.

The establishment media will play a role in the Great Reset, the World Economic Forum suggests. New York Times columnist Ben Smith said the media sees themselves as rule-makers where they set the national agenda — not Americans.

"I think in this election you saw major media outlets just much more careful about picking up, for instance, these stories about Hunter Biden just because they were on the internet in a way that Wikileaks came to dominate the campaign last cycle," Smith said.

"I think that you're seeing the mainstream media institutions become a bit more confident in trying to set the national agenda, trying to establish priorities that they think are the priorities rather than simply reacting to what's happening on social media," Smith continued.

Israeli Rabbi Says He's Already Holding Meetings With Messiah

(IsraelToday.com, 10/15/2020) - A snapshot of Israel's spiritual hunger as biggest rabbis are afraid to leave the country lest they miss Messiah's coming

A recent interview on Israeli radio again featured prominent rabbis explaining that the Messiah is just about to reveal himself.

Rabbi Yaakov Zisholtz told religious broadcaster Radio 2000 that Rabbi Chaim Kanievsky recently told him that Kanievsky is already in direct contact with the Messiah.

To understand why religious Jews are taking this seriously, it's important to know that Rabbi Chaim Kanievsky is considered one of the two or three top rabbis of the ultra-Orthodox Jewish community in Israel. And Rabbi Zisholtz says that Kanievsky and others of the mystical "concealed" rabbis have now tasked him with informing the public of the Messiah's imminent arrival.

Rabbi Zisholtz began his explosive three-hour interview with a warning:

"...the process of redemption is about to start happening very quickly and at a fast pace. It is important that people remain calm and steady to act properly in the right time."

"There is a potential Messiah in every generation and there are righteous men who know precisely who it is. This is, of course, true in this generation."

"Getting the word out now that the Messiah is closer than ever is a QUESTION: How is prophecy being fulfilled today? Do you believe that a vaccine will perhaps be the Mark of the Beast?

ANSWER: We are given a promise concerning the fulfillment of God’s prophecies in Ezekiel 12:22-25: “And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth? Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision. For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.”

God is clearly telling us that His prophecies will indeed come to pass, all in His time. One such prophecy is very familiar - the Mark of the Beast.

This prophecy is being fulfilled in a remarkable way. Luciferase is a generic term for the class of oxidative enzymes that produce bioluminescence, and is usually distinguished from a photoprotein. The name was first used by Raphaël Dubois who invented the words luciferin and luciferase, for the substrate and enzyme, respectively. Both words are derived from the Latin word lucifer – meaning lightbringer.

Bill Gates is building something that we call the Human Implantable Quantum Dot Microneedle Vaccination Delivery System, and it is composed of multiple things. At its center we have the COVID-19 vaccination that he wants to give every human on earth, there will be quantum dot microneedles, a digital identification mark from ID2020, and a human implantable device for buying and selling cryptocurrency with a patent number of #060606.

The digital ID will come in the form of something called an Immunity Passport. All of these things, and all being funded by one man, Bill Gates, represents in total at the very least a stunning forerunner to the Mark of the Beast world system. That’s at the very least estimation, taken to its logical end, it very well could be the actual Mark of the Beast system.

But today, the quantum dot microneedles that will deliver the vaccines, and a very unique biochemical that makes it all work. Today they have developed the ‘near infrared bioluminescence enzyme luciferase’ which is the chemical that will make the quantum dot vaccination readable through a special mobile device app.

To learn more about luciferase, go to: www.nowtheendbegins.com/bill-gates-human-implantable-quantum-dot-microneedle-vaccine-delivery-system-needs-luciferase-666/

One day after Bill Gates stepped down from Microsoft, his patent containing the Mark of the Beast (666) was published and this technology will supposedly be used in the vaccines that he is touting for 7 billion people.

“And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred threescore and six.” — Revelation 13:16-18

On March 26, 2020 patent WO/2020/060606 was published. It is a Microsoft patent for cryptocurrency technology that is connected to the movements of a person’s body. The first inventor listed is a Jew named Dustin Abramson, who is a software engineer working with AI. Yes, it is as God told us it would be through His prophet Ezekiel, we are witnessing the “effect of every vision.”

QUESTION: Why does the Bible say that messing with the nation of Israel is like poking God in the eye?

ANSWER: The verse you refer to is found in Zechariah 2:8, “For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.”

The “apple” refers to the pupil or aperture, through which rays pass to the retina, and is the tenderest part of the eye. This is the member which we most diligently and meticulously guard from hurt as being the dearest of our members. This is one part of our body which feels most acutely the slightest injury and the loss of which is irreparable. God’s promises and privileges with which God's people Israel are blessed, should engage us to join them, whatever it costs us. For he who toucheth (so as to injure) you, “toucheth the apple of His (Almighty God’s) eye”.

There was an article recently that referred to this poking God in the eye. It was reported in an interview that Kamala Harris had with the Arab American News. The name of the article was Poking God In The Eye: Kamala Harris Vows To Fund Israel's Enemies.

“In an interview with The Arab American News, Kamala Harris explicitly stated that she was committed to creating a Palestinian state inside the borders of Israel with its capital in Jerusalem while limiting the number of Jews permitted to live in Judea and Samaria. The interview came during a previous campaign stop in Dearborn, Michigan, home to 40,000 Arab Americans and the largest Muslim population in the United States per capita.

“Joe and I believe in the worth and value of every Palestinian and every Israeli and we will work to ensure that Palestinians and Israelis enjoy equal measures of freedom, security, prosperity and democracy,” Harris said. “We are committed to a two-state solution, and we will oppose any unilateral steps that undermine that goal.

“We will also oppose annexation and settlement expansion. And we will take immediate steps to restore economic and humanitarian assistance to the Palestinian people, address the ongoing humanitarian crisis in Gaza, reopen the U.S. consulate in East Jerusalem and work to reopen the PLO mission in Washington.”

The PLO Mission was closed after the organization violated its obligation to Congress not to target Israel at the International Criminal Court (ICC). The Trump administration was obligated by law to close the office once the Palestinians announced their plans to take Israeli officials to the ICC.

Joe Biden has stated a commitment to these goals as well. Neither has stated any concessions that would be expected from the Palestinians in return. Harris ended her interview with a commitment that has hidden connotations.

The article called on the 57 member states of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) to form a joint "Army of Islam" to besiege and attack the state of Israel. The article went into specifics, describing in detail how such an army would overwhelm the Jewish State.

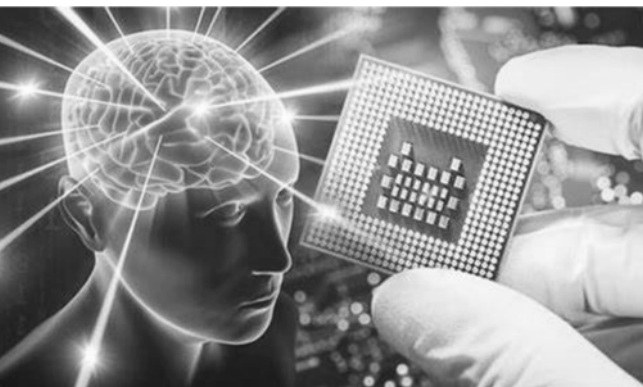

"If the OIC member states unite and form a joint military force, it will be the largest army in the world," the article said. "These countries' total population is 1,674,526,931. The number of soldiers in active service in these countries is at least 5,206,100. Their overall military defense budget, of $174,728,420, is also worthy of emphasis."

Though Erdogan is not officially the head of the OIC, the organization frequently meets in Istanbul. Three months later, he chaired a summit of OIC leaders. Under his direction, the OIC released a statement calling for an international force to protect the Palestinians. The call came after several were killed by the IDF while trying to breach the security fence separating Israel from Gaza during the Hamas-led March of Return riots.

The OIC has called "for the international protection of the Palestinian population including through dispatching of international protection force". The OIC statement also lashed out at the U.S., saying that Washington was complicit in the actions of Israel against the Palestinians. ■

KLAUS SCHWAB: Great Reset Will Lead To Implantable Microchips That Will Read Your Thoughts

Great Reset Will “Lead to a Fusion of Our Physical, Digital, and Biological Identity”

Globalist Klaus Schwab made it clear that transhumanism is an integral part of “The Great Reset” when he said that the fourth industrial revolution would “lead to a fusion of our physical, digital and biological identity,” which in his book he clarifies is implantable microchips that can read your thoughts.

As we highlighted earlier, “The Great Reset” is attracting a deluge of fresh attention in the aftermath of the coronavirus pandemic, which Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau said was an “opportunity for a reset.”

The agenda is primarily based around dismantling the current capitalist system in favor of greater centralized technocrat rule which will lead to lower living standards, less fuel consumption, fewer civil liberties and the accelerated automation of jobs.

However, another key aspect to “The Great Reset,” or the “fourth industrial revolution” as Schwab calls it, is merging man with machine.

“What the fourth industrial revolution will lead to is a fusion of our physical, digital and biological identity,” Schwab told the Chicago Council on Global Affairs.

Schwab went on to explain how his book, ‘Shaping the Future of The Fourth Industrial Revolution’, was particularly popular in China, South Korea, and Japan, with the South Korean military alone purchasing 16,000 copies.

In the book, Schwab explains with excitement how upcoming technology will allow authorities to “intrude into the hitherto private space of our minds, reading our thoughts and influencing our behavior.”

He goes on to predict that this will provide an incentive for law enforcement to implement Minority Report-style pre-crime programs.

“As capabilities in this area improve, the temptation for law enforcement agencies and courts to use techniques to determine the likelihood of criminal activity, assess guilt or even possibly retrieve memories directly from people’s brains will increase,” writes Schwab.

“Even crossing a national border might one day involve a detailed brain scan to assess an individual’s security risk.”

Schwab also waxes lyrical about the transhumanist utopian dream shared by all elitists which will ultimately lead to the creation of human cyborgs.

“Fourth Industrial Revolution technologies will not stop at becoming part of the physical world around us—they will become part of us,” writes Schwab.

“Indeed, some of us already feel that our smartphones have become an extension of ourselves.”

“Today’s external devices — from wearable computers to virtual reality headsets — will almost certainly become implantable in our bodies and brains.”

Schwab also openly endorses something the media still claims is solely a domain of discussion for conspiracy theorists, namely “active implantable microchips that break the skin barrier of our bodies.”

The globalist hails the arrival of “implanted devices (that) will likely also help to communicate thoughts normally expressed verbally through a ‘built-in’ smartphone, and potentially unexpressed thoughts or moods by reading brain waves and other signals.”

So in other words, the “fusion of our physical, digital and biological identity” relates to the transhumanist singularity and a future where people have their every movement tracked and every thought read by an implantable microchip.

It isn’t a “conspiracy theory” when they’re openly telling you what they want to do. ■ the sun-worshiping tradition of those who exchanged the truth of God for the lie. We read in Romans 1:25, "Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen." Our Creator God gives us this majestic concert in the stars where these verses place the sun firmly in its place as a created object, not a god. The created object (the sun) points to the creator (God). The sun gives glory to the creator rather than garnering glory for itself. If there is any connection between the sun-worshiping tradition and this psalm, it is that this psalm was written, in part, to counter that tradition.

For example, the Aztecs believed that they lived in the fifth age, under the fifth Sun God called Nanauatzin. The Aztec creation myth states that at the end of the fourth age, the gods convened to choose a Sun God. The condition was that the chosen god would have to be consummated in the flames of fire to ascend as the Sun God. The pantheon of deities of the Incas was headed by Inti, the sun god. This system of worship can be found in almost all of the different cultures of the world.

In ancient Egypt, Amun Re, was the creator sun god and Thoth, was the god of wisdom and the moon; and Horus, the god of the sun. In Israel Baal was known as the sun god or the storm god and is the name of the supreme male deity worshiped by ancient Phoenicians and Canaanites. Asherah, the moon goddess, was the principal female deity worshiped by ancient Syrians, Phoenicians, and Canaanites.

When I was a young boy growing up, there were many times we would camp out and sleep under the stars. There were times I was captivated by the massiveness of the heavens. On some dark nights, it would seem as if the stars were coming down upon me and wrap me up in them. It was awe-inspiring. Truly, it was as if the universe was speaking to me with a loud voice. The moon and stars were pouring out upon my soul their witness of the Creator God that night. These constituted a kind of speech, it gave me a kind of knowledge that informed my heart. I never in my life doubted the fact that God is the Creator of all things. I came to recognize without a doubt what is written in John 1:3, "All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made".

These constitute a kind of speech—a kind of knowledge—that has the potential to inform every human heart. The witness of these heavenly bodies is not conveyed by ordinary speech or words or voices. They constitute a different kind of art-form that can convey meaning without speech or words or voice. In fact, the visual witness that they offer goes beyond speech or words or voices. They convey a kind of wonder that is impossible to express in mere words. As they say, "A picture is worth a thousand words."

Because the witness of the heavenly bodies is conveyed by image rather than ordinary words, it is able to convey its message to people everywhere — Peru, Russia, Uganda, Myanmar — regardless of their native language or linguistic ability. Even an illiterate person can understand the witness of the heavenly bodies to the Creator who stands behind them.

“Their voice has gone out through all the earth, their words to the end of the world” (v. 4a). The very presence of these heavenly bodies points to the one who created them. Their presence conveys meaning, so it is as if they were using voices or words. It is as if they were singing a heavenly chorale that can be easily understood by sensitive hearts—proclaiming the presence and power and love of the creator.

This witness is not bounded by geography. These heavenly bodies are on view (standing in their pulpit, as it were) every day and every night (at least every day and night when the clouds have not obscured them from view).

Our family takes a walk every evening. If the moon is out, I tell the moon good evening, and all of the family will do the same. We say, "God created you for signs and for seasons and much more. But we humans are his special creation. We were created in the image of God." Try it.

Half the world is exposed to the witness of the sun while the other half is exposed to the witness of the moon and stars. Some places, like the Arctic region, that might seem to be deprived of part of this witness (because the sun shines little or not at all during the winter) are not deprived at all. God created the Arctic lights—the Aurora Borealis—to serve as their special witness.

It is absolutely amazing how God expresses his creation story as he highlights the Sun in the last part of verse 4 and all of verse 5, "... hath he set a tabernacle for the sun." ⁵*Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.*"

God provided our galaxy (the Milky Way) as a tabernacle (a tent) for the sun to be displayed as a crown jewel, where it can retire to rest during the night (the psalmist had no idea that the sun illuminates the other side of earth during his night time).

Then how majestically God depicts the Sun as a bridegroom. It is a glorious sight, much like the sight of a bridegroom emerging joyously from the bridal chamber, with a huge smile on his face. As the sun works its way across the heavens during the day, it is like a strong man enjoying a good run as he feels the wind in his face. The sun not only lights our days, but it also produces the light and warmth necessary to sustain vegetation, animal life, and human life. Without the sun, the earth would be merely a frozen and lifeless rock.

For anyone who takes time to look at the universe and sees how it is constructed, the evidence of God is everywhere to be seen.

Our planet Earth happens to be in the Goldilocks Zone. It refers to the habitable ZONE around a star where the temperature is just right - not too hot and not too cold - for liquid water to exist on a planet. The Goldilocks Zone makes it just right for life, as we are not too close to the Sun, otherwise it would be too hot and plant life could not grow. And we are not too far from the Sun, as it would cause the Earth to be too cold. This would cause all kinds of different problems. Nothing would be able to reproduce making it possible to sustain life as we know it. Everything is exactly the way it needs to be. And it is not by happenstance.

It is not only the stars and the heavenly host that cries out about its glorious creation, the animals

Digital Passports That Confirm Your Vaccination Status Are Coming

International travel will soon look far different than it once did. Now that multiple vaccines for COVID-19 have been rushed through the development process, it is just a matter of time before they start being widely distributed. In fact, we are being told that the rollout for COVID-19 vaccines here in the United States will likely begin sometime the middle of December.

There will be millions of people that will be quite eager to rush out and get injected, but of course, there will be millions of others that never intend to get vaccinated under any circumstances. Unfortunately, those choosing not to get vaccinated could soon find themselves being unable to travel internationally.

For months, there has been speculation about the possibility of some sort of "COVID passport" for international travel, but now it is being reported that such a thing is actually "in the final development phase"...

The International Air Transport Association (IATA) said it's "in the final development phase" of a mobile "digital passport" app that would tell airlines if international travelers had been vaccinated against COVID-19. The app would help "get people traveling again safely," IATA's Nick Careen said in a statement, by "giving governments confidence that systematic COVID-19 testing can work as a replacement for quarantine requirements."

Needless to say, the International Air Transport Association will be strongly urging all carriers to use this new "digital passport" in the months ahead. But will the airlines go along?

In Australia, Qantas Chief Executive Alan Joyce has already made it quite clear that he expects international travelers to prove that they have been vaccinated...

"We are looking at changing our terms and conditions to say for international travelers, that we will ask people to have the vaccination before they get on the aircraft," Joyce told Australia's Network 9 TV.

And Korean Air is taking a similar stance...

Jill Chung, a spokesperson for Korean Air, said there's a real possibility that airlines will require that passengers be vaccinated. She said that's because governments are likely to require vaccinations as a condition for lifting quarantine requirements for new arrivals.

Here in the US, the major airlines are not committing one way or the other just yet...

When asked if American Airlines would implement such a policy, a company spokesperson said that while the airline is pleased that vaccine development is moving forward, it's too early to comment on policies related to a COVID-19 vaccine.

A spokesperson for Southwest said that the airline "will continue monitoring public health information from the CDC, the latest scientific research, and insights from our internal and external experts to guide our operational policies as we work to support the well-being of our customers and employees during the COVID-19 pandemic." Jet Blue and United did not respond to a request for comment.

But if the federal government ultimately decides to order the airlines to go along with this new program, you know that they will fall in line. And once "COVID passports" are in place for international travel, how long will it be before they start being required for domestic travel?

Prior to the pandemic, talking about such a thing would have been unimaginable, but at this point, we are seeing unimaginable measures being instituted all over the world. For example, we just learned that police will be going door to door in Belgium to enforce COVID restrictions even during the holidays...

Belgian Interior Minister Annelies Verlinden has warned her fellow countrymen that police will knock on doors at Christmas if needed to enforce Wuhan coronavirus measures.

The Interior Minister stated that law enforcement would make sure to enforce the strict Wuhan coronavirus lockdown measures even on Christmas Day, saying that "If necessary, if there is a lot of noise, for example, the police will knock on doors."

On our side of the Atlantic, things are becoming increasingly draconian as well.

Out in Oregon, Governor Kate Brown is actually encouraging residents to spy on their neighbors and to report any infractions to law enforcement authorities... "Look, this is no different than what happens if there's a party down the street and it's keeping everyone awake," Brown told KGW8 last week. "What do neighbors do? They call law enforcement because it's too noisy. This is just like that. It's like a violation of a noise ordinance. ... Honestly, they shouldn't have to. This is about saving lives and it's about protecting our fellow Oregonians."

To me, that sounds like the sort of thing they used to do in East Germany at the height of the Cold War.

In New York City, they have decided to set up "vehicle checkpoints" at important bridges and crossings in order to enforce the new restrictions which were just put in place... New York City will have vehicle checkpoints at key bridges and crossings, and will strictly enforce the travel quarantine, Sheriff Joseph Fucito said. The sheriff's office will conduct spot checks when out-of-state buses drop riders off at the curb. Test and tracing teams will be on the ground to direct individuals to testing sites and provide education on quarantine, Fucito said.

If things are this bad already, can you imagine what they will do if this pandemic gets worse or if an even more dangerous pandemic eventually comes along?

The good news is that there has been a lot of resistance to absurd restrictions here in the United States, and that is going to make it difficult for the politicians to push things too far. And surveys have shown that approximately two-thirds of the U.S. population is against mandatory vaccinations, and other surveys have shown that only a minority of all Americans plan to get a COVID vaccine right away. With so few Americans getting vaccinated, that is going to make it really hard for the airlines to make it a requirement for their passengers.

Also, it is going to take more than one trip to the doctor to be fully "vaccinated", and those trips won't be pleasant. One prominent member of the AMA even admitted that some people may not want to come back for a second shot because "they are probably not going to feel wonderful" after the first shot...

Dr. Sandra Fryhofer of the American Medical Association said both Pfizer's and Moderna's Covid-19 vaccines require two doses at varying intervals. As a practicing physician, she said she worries whether her patients will come back for a second dose because of the potentially unpleasant side effects they may experience after the first shot.

"We really need to make patients aware that this is not going to be a walk in the park," Fryhofer said during a virtual meeting with the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, or ACIP, an outside group of medical experts that advise the CDC. She is also a liaison to the committee. "They are going to know they had a vaccine. They are probably not going to feel wonderful. But they've got to come back for that second dose."

In addition, COVID antibodies fade very rapidly, and so to have any sort of lasting immunity people would need to go back to the doctor every few months for more shots.

On top of everything else, if a new strain of COVID that does not respond to the vaccines becomes dominant, the shots that people get may not even do them any good in the long run.

A lot of the "experts" out there are anticipating that these vaccines will allow our lives to "return to normal" soon, but I don't think that is going to happen. Instead, I am expecting even more draconian measures to be instituted all over the globe in 2021, and that is extremely unfortunate. ■ on earth do the same. Note what God tells us in Job 12:7-11: "But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee. ⁹Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this? ¹⁰In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?"

Having finished his brilliant picture of God’s omniscient wisdom, God uses Zophar to add further brilliancy to it by contrasting it with the brutishness of man. Job 11:12, "For vain men would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt." God is telling us that an empty headed man will become wise when a wild ass colt is born a man."

When you look at our solar system and you see a gas giant the size of Jupiter, God uses that planet to pull us through gravitation. Jupiter is, by far, the largest planet in the solar system – more than twice as massive as all the other planets combined. Jupiter's familiar stripes and swirls are actually cold, windy clouds of ammonia and water, floating in an atmosphere of hydrogen and helium. Nine spacecraft have visited Jupiter. Seven flew by and two have orbited the gas giant.

Jupiter pulls us just far enough away from our Sun so that we are not too close. But it's not big enough to pull us farther away from our Sun. Just far enough as it was designed by God to allow us to live the life we do here on earth. We have such a marvelous Creator. He created everything to be exactly where it needs to be in our solar system.

Moreover, that gas giant with its massive gravitation pulls in large debris from around the solar system that orbit us all the time - big rocks, asteroids, meteorites. These could do great damage to our lifestyle and destroy life on earth.

Our great Creator God designed this universe by putting into place all of these safe guards. That giant Jupiter was placed at just the right distance, and because of that, prevents the extinction of life on planet earth.

It is also important to take into account the Sun and the existence of the Moon. Our Moon is abnormally large, if we compare it to the body it orbits. The moon has always played a major role in man's movements and daily existence, from the ebb and flow of tides to religious ceremonies, crop harvests and maritime navigation, which is why it has always been historically important to keep track of its orbit .

All of this is so majestic. Some look at all of this as our universe being engaged in a celestial dance. All of our planets are in the prescribed position from each other based upon other facets of the universe they belong to.

All of this becomes even more interesting when we consider where our solar system is located in or galaxy. Our galaxy, the Milky Way, is a spiral armed galaxy. We do not live inside a spiral arm - one of the many big milky spiral arms. We live in one of the dark spots in between the spiral arms. We are not too close to the center, or we would be destroyed. And we are not too far away. We are exactly where God put us and where we need to be. Our toes are exactly where they need to be in our body. If our toes were where ears are, we wouldn't be able to stand up without falling over.

As it is written, "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well." (Psalms 139:14)

Being where we are allows us to have a maximum view of the universe in which we live. It is not by accident that the only planet that has observers on it like us, happens to be in the prime spot to observe things. Does our vast universe disprove God?

"Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein." (Isaiah 42:5)

"Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD." (Psalms 150:6)

Recent Astronomical Events Are of Interest to Christians

As Christians, we may have heard a great deal about the star of David that appeared during the birth of Jesus. But did you know that a certain astronomical phenomenon involving stars occurred in late December of 2020? That’s right. The planets Saturn and Jupiter aligned on December 21 and formed a “Christmas star” shape in their alignment.

Just how rare is this phenomenon? According to Christian Headlines, you have to go back 800 years to the 1200s just to see something similar to this happening around the same time.

It may seem like a surprise that so many Christians seem so invested in two planets aligning near the time of Christmas. Even apart from the Christmas season, it does seem the case that believers get excited about blood moons and other astronomical events. Why is this the case?

For the answer to that, we have to turn to Scripture. Genesis 2:1 “Thus the heavens and the earth were completed, and all their hosts.”

First and foremost, God created the heavens and our planet. This includes every speckled star we see in the night sky. Of course, we’d be invested in the beauty of creation that our Creator has formed for us.

Luke 21:25: “There will be signs in sun and moon and stars, and on the earth dismay among nations, in perplexity at the roaring of the sea and the waves.”

One of the key signs that we’ve reached the events to occur in Revelation happens in a natural disaster level and via signs in the cosmos. Christians get excited about astronomical signs because it reminds us that Christ will come again to set the world right.

Revelation 8:12 “The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and the day would not shine for a third of it, and the night in the same way.”

At the end of days, we will see signs in the skies from the sun darkening, the moon turning blood red, and the stars falling like figs. Scripture has told us to watch vigilantly for the Day of the Lord, and when we see these signs, we will be ready for that day.

Astronomical signs point to the Second Coming of Christ. Although we cannot predict when He will return, when we see natural phenomena occurrences, we remember that such will be the conditions of the Last Days.

“When I consider Your heavens,
the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have ordained,
*What is man that You are mindful of him,
And the son of man that You visit him?*”
— Psalm 8:3-4

Look up, for your redemption draweth nigh! ■

RUSSIA:

Reclaiming Lives -- Restoring Hope -- Sharing the Good News!

We thank God for His ongoing work among the Russian people which we could not do without our Director of Russian Missions, Alexey. He is doing a fantastic job ministering to those around him.

GOOD WORKS — OPEN DOORS

Lyudmila's children

LYUDMILA'S FAMILY

Last month, Alexey brought Lyudmila and her eleven children to our attention. Lyudmila expressed that two of her boys greatly needed winter boots. Our Lord Jesus used us to purchase both of these boys a pair.

Lyudmila is the woman with the alcoholic husband who had abandoned them. Most of her friends had advised her to scorn her husband. But Alexey shared with her two Bible verses that tell us how we should respond in these situations. 1 Peter 3:9, "Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing; knowing that you are thereunto called, that you should inherit a blessing." And 1 Peter 3:1: "Likewise you wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation (manner of living) of the wife."

When Alexey returned to deliver the boys winter boots to the Lyudmila, she shared that after he shared God's Word with her, she began to meditate upon those verses and asked God to use her in whatever way He chose.

She stopped using abusive words against her husband and began to speak with him in a godly manner, and God began to work in their family. Now, her husband comes to the family home and prepares meals for all the family. He is spending a great deal of time with the children and even playing with them outdoors. Lyudmila was shocked and yet grateful to her Savior.

She is so thankful that God used Alexey to share these verses of Scripture with her. God is good. Alexey has been busy preparing a Christmas gift for each of the eleven children by the grace of God and through your generous giving. We hope to share pictures next month.

ANDREI and STEPAN

This is 13-year-old Stepan, whose father, Andrei, has cerebral palsy. When Alexey first met this family, he was shocked to see Stepan leave the apartment. The weather was extremely windy and cold with snow and ice on the ground. Stepan was dressed in pants with a big holes on both knees, and clothes that were too small. He couldn't even zip his sweater! He had no head covering and very light summer shoes. Alexey asked if he had any other clothes for school, but he did not.

Alexey immediately knew what to buy for Stepan — some warm insulated clothing and boots. The temperature gets to -40° F degrees at times. It is much easier to be needy and poor in tropical climates than it is in Russia.

Stepan shared that he had always wanted a LEGO set, but he knew it was an impossibility. So, Alexey took a huge surprise to Stepan when he visited him. We hope to share a picture of Stepan with his dream come true in our next newspaper.

ROMAN and TATIANA'S FAMILY

Roman and Tatiana's

Roman and Tatiana have eight children. Roman developed a very serious eye problem that cost him his job.

This is their 15 year old daughter, Anastasia (Nastya) with the beautiful winter coat provided for her by the generous giving of friends of Today the Bible and You. When Alexey brought this coat to Nastya, he asked the other children if they had any special gift wishes. To his surprise, seven of the other kids asked for a toy of some kind, but Nastya asked for a Bible. This shocked Alexey.

And she didn't ask for just any Bible. She wants a Bible with a zipper cover to protect it from the harsh wintry weather. It would also be useful to store notes she took on Scripture.

All the children in these three families, (Lyudmila and her eleven children; Tatiana and her eight children and Andrei's son Stepan) that are six years and older wash floors, hallways and entryways in the apartment complex they live in and other apartment buildings also. Their mother works along with them. They are paid very little but it puts food on their tables. This is illegal, so their mother receives the money. These families are hardworking and doing whatever is required to provide for their family.

KATERINA'S FAMILY

Katerina with four of her five children.

Katerina and her five children is the first family that we provided with some Christmas cheer. Each child had provided Alexey with a request for something they dreamed about for a long time. God answered their prayers and Alexey delivered their wish along with a warm blanket, because they none. The apartment they live in, according to Alexey, is very cold.

Thank YOU!

It's because of YOU and your compassion and generosity that Today, the Bible and You is able to make such an impact in their lives. We appreciate EVERY donation and ask you to prayerfully consider lending your support by giving money or by praying for our staff and ministry. God bless! ■

December 2020

Dear prayer partners and loving supporters! Thank you for your prayers and loving supports..

This month has been one of the best months for this year. It's a month of Grace and God's Mercy!

1. When we started a Bible church in Shillong, there was a grievous split. The consequence was very, very bitter. We were left alone with just two families. I went through many sleepless nights and cried out to God. After four years, just this month they all came back. And we celebrated their homecoming on October 17, 2020 with beef cooked in our tribal style. We are like the returned captives of Psalm 126.

They are almost more than us. Dedication service performed by Pastor Paukhanlian followed by traditional meal.

2. We made lots of house visits and had many cottage meetings going on this month, inviting people to come to the church and shared God's Word. We now have 15 families. We expect more to come.

Christmas is going to be exciting!

3. November 11 was my birthday and our 10th wedding anniversary. We invited some of our best friends and close family friends and cut wedding cake. (below)

4. One of the most encouraging news is that my nephew, Lal (pictured left) was a drug addict for many years, then was a heavy drinker. He attended our gospel camp last month and committed his life to Christ. His mother who had been crying and suffering for more than 10 years because of him is now happy and praising God. She told me that her son is now reading the Bible and even preached at their village church.

5. I had to cancel my preaching schedule in December at annual council and gospel camp in Manipur due to COVID-19. The govt passed a law that will not allow more than 20 in any gathering.

6. Last, but not the least. I was informed that the CAR we ordered on October 15 is arriving this week. They manufactured in Calcutta the day I booked it.

Thank you so much for your supports and prayers!

With love and gratitude

PERU — RADIO MISSION

Looking back nearly twenty years ago when God sent us to the beautiful Amazon River Valley in Peru to purchase a radio station, we had no idea the impact that station would have on the people of the area.

The listeners tell us how much they appreciate the radio station and almost weekly we get reports of people who have received Christ as their Savior while listening.

God has been so faithful and expanded the work in tremendous ways. What began as just one Christian radio station has now multiplied into three different TV channels and eight radio ministries as well as several translator stations in many outlying communities.

Our original station is located in Yurimaguas, Peru and then we built a second radio station in Picota which broadcasts in a 100 mile radius of the station across the Amazon valley.

Recently, these ministry outlets have become extremely important. During this Covid-19 pandemic, all churches throughout Peru have been totally shut down and the radio and TV outlets have been a huge benefit to the people. In fact, many people who previously were not going to church have been listening on the radio or watching it on TV. There has been an increase in requests for Bibles, Bible literature and studies, and Bible teaching CDs to help the people grow in their newfound faith in Christ.

As it is written in Philippians 1:6, "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."

Always holding forth the Word of Life, we have been distributing Bibles to many who were never able to own their own personal Bible before. To most of the who received a free copy of the Holy Scriptures, they would bring the Bible to their cheek and embrace it with deep love and tenderness.

A group of young people gathered together in one of the outdoor churches in one of the jungle areas we visited. These kids were so hungry for the Word of God but Bible teaching materials are hard to come by. They have few Sunday School materials and there is no place where they can buy any. That’s why the Bible teaching programs on the radio stations are so important in these areas. The pastors in many of these remote churches have just been reading the Bible and teaching what they know ... And the people want to know more. Please pray with us for this precious work among these remote churches.

Carlos delivering Bibles in Peru

Carlos has been taking Bibles, gospel song books, and other Christian literature into these remote areas of the jungle where people listen to the Voice of the Rose of Sharon. Many young people are always in attendance and so hungry to learn about the Lord Jesus and His many promises to them.

Please continue to pray that the Lord will open their hearts to understand the teaching they are receiving and pray for the people who are learning what it REALLY means to be a Christian.

God has been so faithful over the past years. We always thank God for YOU because your gifts to this work of Faith – make this all possible. Thank you for your support!

Dear Pastor John, Greetings in the precious name of Jesus Christ.

Thank you for the kindnesses you showed by providing us with money to purchase rice for people. We praise God for His kindness to all of us. We were able to buy very much rice and other foods to give to the people here. I have distributed the rice day before yesterday and continue many days. I was preparing only for 180 family with tokens but I was not able to send away those poor families whom I was not able to give rice but came to the school hearing the news. We had to order more bags of rice and distribute to them too. All together 235 families have received the relief — 20 kg (44 lbs.) each. I am sorry to find out that many more families would want to be helped which I can't this time.

I also wanted to thank you, Pastor John who made this great humanitarian work in such a time like this possible.

Many have asked me to convey their thanks and gratitude for the love and care you have shown to them in such a time like this. I was able to do that sooner because a shop owner was so happy to hear that you are sending money to help the poor. He told me I can take as many bags I required for the relief and pay him when ever I received the money. Pastor John, I am also blessed by the wonderful work you have done for the people here through me. May God continue to bless you and your family also your ministry.

Thank you for your support. Lots of love from our family. God bless you and your family.

School to Reopen in January

We thank God for using us to establish the beautiful Bob J. Perry Memorial School in rural Uganda, Africa. The school which opened last February has been shut down since about June 2020 because of the COVID19 virus.

But praise God, the school is scheduled to reopen again this month!

Tragically, the COVID Crisis has greatly affected the poorest nations of the world the most. In countries like Uganda, the government locked down the country for almost an entire year. Even with the partial lifting of the lockdown, the effects of pandemic containment measures such as border closures and quarantine measures, is still taking a toll on livelihoods and the economy.

Transport costs have doubled, making it difficult for many who still have jobs to get to their places of work or carry out their jobs, and it seriously affects incomes.

Needless to say, they can use help from the people of God.

“Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless (orphans) and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.”

~ James 1:27

Scripture tells us that it is pleasing to God to visit orphans and widows who are in the middle of affliction. The word visit is not a simple reference to stopping by for a brief chat, but is actually indicative of helping them with both their physical need and spiritual needs, it is the duty of God's people to help provide for them.

People are finding it difficult to make a living and their greatest need is food. With your help, we can provide for them. For example, 1 Kilo (just over 2 pounds) will cost 5000 Uganda Shillings. This equals to about $67 US dollars as of October 2020. A 50kg bag of maize flour will about 75,000 Shillings.

As you can see in pictures below, through your generous giving we have already been able to provide some rice and beans for them but they continue to need so much more. They also still need Bibles.

Will you help?

NO GIFT IS TOO SMALL:

Your $5 - $10 - $25 - $50 - $100 - $500 gift is greatly appreciated.

Through your support today, we can reach them with the hope of the gospel. When you give by December 31, your gift will be tax-deductible for 2020. ■

matter of life and death. Haven't you heard of Gog and Magog? That is what is going to happen very soon. Right now, the situation is explosive more than you can possibly imagine. Everyone needs to know whether they are on the inside or if they are going to be left out."

Decades ago, Rabbi Yitzhak Kaduri, one of modern Israel's most revered sages, as well as the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, both predicted that Benjamin Netanyahu would be the State of Israel's last prime minister prior to the Messianic Age. A great many, if not most of the ultra-Orthodox Jews in Israel continue to believe that to be true.

Global digital health passports have arrived, driven by the Coronavirus panic!

(TOTNews, 11/15/2020) "CommonPass: Digital health passports have arrived"

■"TRAVEL TRACKING IS HERE: It has been over six months since Australia instituted a historic travel ban that prevents most people from leaving the country ...While Australia's outgoing travel restrictions are among the most strict anywhere, all nations are struggling with how to move past blanket bans and resume international travel.

"And some nations think they have the answer. Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, the United States and Chile are among the countries that are looking into so-called 'immunity passports' or 'COVID-free passports'. It is now being floated as a 'solution' that could unlock world travel sooner than a vaccine arrives."

The science seems to contradict the efficacy of a passport which guarantees that the holder is "COVID-FREE"!

"Never Let a Good Crisis Go To Waste"!
(Global Elite Mantra)

"According to the project, users would upload their coronavirus test results onto their phone, with the app generating a barcode to be scanned at the airport. Individual national responses will not be sufficient to address this global crisis," the World Economic Forum's Christoph Wolff said. CommonPass will be used to streamline the process of entering a country from overseas. We are now seeing the beginning phases of a worldwide tracking system that will be linked to the health status of each and every individual. " ■

PERU:

In 2007, the Voice of the Rose of Sharon radio station began broadcasting gospel of the Lord Jesus to an area that was famine-stricken for the Word of God. Today, that single radio station has expanded to include TV programming on several channels and has produced over 200 congregations in different parts of Peru and various other ministries to children and adults but there is still a great need for Bibles and study materials. The Lord also opened many important doors with municipal leaders to our director in Peru, Wildoro Mendoza. The provincial governor asked Wildoro to be his spiritual counselor and they have organized days of prayer and fasting in local communities. Would you consider supporting this important work?

INDIA—Dongza Thawng:

In Shillong, India, Dongza has opened the Door of Hope ministry where the Lord is working mightily in his community. His ministry is growing so fast that he is currently looking to buy a new property so that they can expand their mission. Dongza holds Bible studies with college students and families, youth camps, vacation Bible school and crusades, and has also begun Christian couples retreats to heal marriages and a follow-up program for the new believers who committed their lives for Christ during salvation camp (many of whom are recovering alcoholics). He travels to nearby villages and reaches out to anyone the Lord sends his way with food and the gospel of Jesus Christ and has seen the hand of the Lord moving in a mighty way. Dongza and a missionary friend, Junus Khan, (pictured) also witness to Muslims and Hindus in the area. They have had several converts and are helping them to build homes and a new life on some land which was donated by a local doctor. They are helping them grow in their faith while hiding them from persecution. Please pray about supporting this mission.

PHILIPPINES — SMO (Student Missionary Outreach):

SMO's vision is to "Reach the Filipino Youth for Christ with the Gospel of Jesus Christ". In the past, the Bible was not allowed to be taught in most schools. However, in recent years the Lord has opened doors through the SMO-Moral Values Program. With this program, SMO is now welcome to conduct the Moral Values Seminar in schools throughout the 7,000 Philippine islands. The program teaches the dangers of smoking, drug-addiction, alcoholism, pre-marital sex, and much more — and even school officials and teachers have participated with the students. Many teachers have testified of God's power in moving, convicting, delivering, and changing the lives of many young people. SMO has also established a Bible training school to train future youth workers to reach the youth of the Philippines.

INDIA—Rose of Sharon Christian Schools and Home — Rejoice Kamei

This is one of the top-ranked schools in NE India with an attendance of over 950 children. Many of the children are orphaned, or are too poor to even pay for the basic books and uniforms. The students come from various religious backgrounds such as Muslim, Hindu, Christian and Animist (spirit worshippers). They are all taught in the English language and have Bible classes, attending chapel services as well. The school also conducts an annual Bible camp for the students and needs Bibles, study materials, and food for the camp. Afterward, a program for the parents and families of the students which includes a plan of salvation is presented. They also reach out with the Gospel and hold church services for the local villagers. Attendance is growing every year and so is the need for more uniforms, textbooks, classrooms, housing, bunk beds and benches for the students. Right now, there are about 70 students per classroom and there are not enough seats for everyone. A basic building (15 classrooms) will cost approximately $150,000. Will you help?

BURMA — New Life Orphan Center AND Grace Children's Home

New Life Orphan Center founded by Pastor Khup Lam Thang (aka Thangno) and Grace Children's Home run by Zam Kap are two orphanages we support in Burma. All the children receive Bible training and basic education from kindergarten to university. They are taught Bible stories and Christian songs that will build their relationship with God. Several of the orphans have recently graduated from university. With their degrees, they could find good jobs, yet, they chose to serve the Lord by remaining in the orphanage to teach other orphans. Indeed, this is a testimony of how they want to repay the debt they owe to God.

Why is the Bible different from any other book?

Because the Bible is alive, it is a living book!

Revelation 19:9-13: "And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God."

This passage of Scripture describes our Lord Jesus Christ. This Book of Books that most people allow to collect dust on their table or shelf is alive and seeks to establish a personal intimate relationship with every human being. This Book has a personal name, The Word of God. God tells us in Hebrews 4:12 how very alive this Book is.

"For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." (Hebrews 4:12)

Yes, this Book is a living book. It doesn't only sit on a table or shelf, it is active and sharper than any two-sword. Sharper than any razor blade or surgical knife ever made. It is able to complete the most complex surgical procedure, by piercing as far as the division of the soul and spirit, of the joints and marrow. No surgeon in the world is able to do that. There is more, it is able to penetrate the deepest parts of our nature, exposing, sifting, analyzing and judging the very thoughts and purposes of the heart of every single person who ever lived. No one who ever lived is able to do that.

In seeking to establish an intimate personal relationship with every human being, after being exposed to the Scriptures, God wants us to always pause to prayerfully meditate upon what you have read. It is then that this book of books will become alive. You will be rewarded by the pages becoming alive who will become your Teacher, by his Spirit with rich spiritual insights on the text! In this case the writer is explaining why we must be diligent to enter God's rest.

The Word of God is not the Word of man! When the Bible speaks, God speaks! It came down from heaven and is not from earth. When you receive the Word of God, you are receiving God. To reject the Word of God you are rejecting God!

There is no devil in the first two chapters of the Bible and no devil in the last two chapters. Thank God for a book that disposes of the devil, as our Lord Jesus came to destroy the works of the devil. (1 John 3:8)

Our Lord Christ and His Word must go together because they are one. When we submit to the Lord Jesus, believing His blood washed our sins away and thus removing the very thing that was separating us from Him, He takes up His residence in us. This is what allows Him to continue living His life on this earth through us. Galatians 2:20: "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

Our Lord Jesus moves, stirs and lives in us. He communes with us as a living Word and Spirit. His mind begins to think in us that through us through His Word.

This is tragic reason to that much Bible reading and Bible study of the last few years has been of no spiritual profit to those who engaged in it. This is the reason most of those who attend religious services in Christian churches know nothing about these things.

They are not aware that our Lord has given to every believer a spiritual gift He has imparted unto them to serve Him. This will allow the believer to fulfill all of the good works our Lord Jesus has purposed to accomplish through us during our sojourn on earth.

The Word of God may be taken up from various motives. Some read it to satisfy their literary pride. Some read it to satisfy their sense of curiosity, as they might any other book of note. Others read it to satisfy their sectarian pride. They consider it a duty to be well versed in the particular tenets of their own denomination and so search eagerly for proof-texts in support of "our doctrines." Yet others read it for the purpose of being able to argue successfully with those who differ from them. But in all this there is no thought of God, no yearning for spiritual edification, and therefore no real benefit to the soul.

What does a true profiting from the Word consist? God provides us with a clear answer in 2 Timothy 3:16-17.

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

Martin Luther declared, "The Bible is alive, it speaks to me; it has feet, it runs after me; it has hands, it lays hold on me."

C. H. Spurgeon said, "This Book has wrestled with me; the Book has smitten me; the Book has comforted me; the Book has smiled on me; the Book has frowned on me; the Book has clasped my hand; the Book has warmed my heart. The Book weeps with me, and sings with me; it whispers to me, and it preaches to me; it maps my way, and holds up my goings; it is the Young Man's Best Companion, and is still my morning and evening Chaplain."

Our Lord Jesus tells us of the living aspect of the Word of God declaring "It is the Spirit who quickeneth [gives life]; the flesh profits nothing; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life." (John 6:63)

Charles Spurgeon shared these thoughts on the Word as a living seed - "Plants unknown in certain regions have suddenly sprung from the soil: the seeds have been wafted on the winds, carried by birds, or washed ashore by the waves of the sea. So vital are seeds that they live and grow wherever they are borne; and even after lying deep in the soil for centuries, when the upturning spade has brought them to the surface, they have germinated at once. Thus it is with the Word of God: it lives and abides forever, and in every soil and under all circumstances it is prepared to prove its own life by the energy with which it grows and produces fruit to the glory of God."

May our Creator produce life eternal in you. ■

retention, fatigue and possibly serious uremia.

Prof- Fumio Tsurudani of the Nagayo University Medical Institute, Japan, did an experiment with patients suffering from renal disease to check the effectiveness of Ganoderma. It was found that it could not only lower proteinuria and cholesterolemia, but could also help maintain proper renal function.

According to western medical theory, medicinal herbs, like Ganoderma can be used for kidney strengthening - help the kidney functions to improve:

- Acute kidney infection (inflammation)
- Chronic kidney infection
- Last stage kidney infection

Herbs for the kidney can also improve diseases associated with the weakening of this vital organ such as:

- High uric acid (Gout)
- Protein in urine
- Weak immune system

Limitation of herbs for the kidney

Kidney cells that have died cannot be revived. Herbs can only strengthen the functions of remaining kidney cells, preventing further damage. That's why it is impossible to treat a dialysis patient because their kidney has been seriously contracted.

However, there is still some hope for the patient that is near to having dialysis. These are usually patients with the following indicators in their medical report:

- High Creatinine in blood
- High Urea in blood
- Protein existence in urine (urine with bubbles that won't disperse)

The truth of kidney functions report

If your medical report shows your kidney functions are okay, does it mean it's completely healthy? Well, not really.

If your kidney has contracted to half (half of the cells died), your report will still show a normal kidney function. The half kidney can still handle the capacity to filter all your blood. That's why some people donate one kidney and still live normally.

But when your kidneys are left with around 20% to 30% of the original cells, your medical report starts to show abnormal indicators. Usually, it's too late and you will need to undergo a torturing treatment - dialysis.

So, please be aware that a medical report only provides indicators for reference.

Kidney disease symptoms & causes

You must suspect you have a weak kidney when you experience the following symptoms:

- Increase in blood pressure
- Difficulty in urinating
- Frequent urinating even when sleeping
- Pain at the waist (back)
- Urine with too much bubble
- Weak legs

Kidney diseases are associated with the following factors:

- Eating too much salty food (a burden to kidneys, heart, and blood vessels)
- Eating too much meat and seafood
- Drinking too little water
- Long term medication of antibiotics, pain killers, steroids, etc. (toxins)
- High blood pressure (damages kidney blood vessels)
- Diabetes
- Anger and stress
- SLE – Lupus (autoimmune reaction)
- Often untreated sore throat (inflammation)
- Often refrain from urinating
- Prostate enlargement in men

Coffee can be beneficial for kidney disease

According to a recent study in 2018, drinking coffee could help keep alive people with chronic kidney disease. The flow of caffeine into the body releases substances including nitric acid into the bloodstream to improve its function.

Researchers discovered that chronic kidney disease patients who drank more coffee had a 25 percent lower risk of dying within five years than those who drank less.

This was true even after adjusting for other factors such as class, race, income, and smoking – the study was conducted in the US where the biggest coffee drinkers tend to be white, middle-class males.

Medical researchers from Lisbon's Central Hospital, Portugal, analyzed health and lifestyle records of 4,860 American adults over an 11 year period. Among those with chronic kidney disease, those who consumed the most caffeine had the lowest risk of fatality, they reported in the specialist journal Nephrology Dialysis Transplantation.

Now just imagine the power of coffee combined with Ganoderma lucidum!

Strengthen your kidneys with natural food and herbs

Besides herbs for kidneys, there are some foods that can improve kidney energy such as black beans and black sesame. Ganoderma Lucidum as an herb for the kidneys certainly helps to improve its functions also.

Ganoderma Lucidum's Nucleic Acid strengthens the kidneys to neutralize toxins, reduces protein in urine, and breaks down cholesterol. Ganoderma effectively helps to improve blood circulation, detoxify the body, strengthen and regulate the immune system. Therefore, taking Ganoderma helps to improve kidney disease caused by the above causes.

This is especially important for those with a high risk of kidney disease. They may have high blood pressure, diabetes, or live with a very low immune system. For the early stage of kidney disease, you can also take Ganoderma for higher healing chances.

However, for very serious kidney disease, taking Ganoderma is not recommended. Ganoderma contains Potassium which has many health benefits but may slightly burden your kidneys to filter it. Since the kidney is already very weak, we don't want to further increase its workload. Therefore, if you have a very high blood creatinine level, do not take Ganoderma for the time being.

Testimonies of Ganoderma users:

Erickaunna Schmidt (age 75): I lost one kidney in an accident, and then I got cancer of the throat, uterus and my remaining kidney. I half-healed myself through organic foods for 3 weeks, amazing my doctor. Then I found Ganoderma and am now completely free of cancer. Praise God! ■

Are We Witnessing a Coup d’etat?

An Open Letter to Arizona

[Editor’s note: This is a press release from Congressman Paul Gosar, Dec 9, 2020.]

As I write this, I am in our nation’s Capital attending to legislative business, but I remain focused on what is happening in our country regarding our election.

In 2016, then candidate Donald Trump fell victim to a heinous crime that had never before been committed in the history of our country. The outgoing Obama administration weaponized our Department of Justice and FBI to unlawfully spy on their political opponent. They falsified information and crafted a ridiculous narrative around a Russia hoax that would be used as the basis to pursue a sham investigation. That disgraceful investigation became a Sword of Damocles throughout the majority of President Trump’s Presidency.

Before President Trump was even sworn in, Democrat Leftists swore an oath to remove him by any means they could. Official calls to impeach him came before he was even sworn in. At the conclusion of the Russia investigation, they cherry-picked a phone call the President had with Ukraine to pursue a farcical impeachment. They failed. They lied about our President every day for four years. Having failed everywhere else, they brazenly engaged in systemic voter fraud and are trying to steal this election. They did it right in front of us with no shame.

For months Joe Biden hid while they carefully planned. The “fact-checkers” became more bold — removing reports and slapping “this claim is disputed” labels on anything that might bruise Joe Biden. For weeks leading up to Election Day, we were told to expect Trump to win big on election night but that in the days that followed, Biden would overtake any lead as mail-in ballots were counted. On election night as votes poured in overwhelmingly for President Trump, Joe Biden told supporters to “Keep the Faith” and “We believe we are on track to win this.” The next morning, we all awoke to see massive, statistically impossible spikes in votes for Joe Biden and almost zero for President Trump. Are we witnessing a coup d’etat?

We will not tolerate this.

As many of you know, I helped organize the very first “Stop the Steal” rally in Arizona right after it became clear that voting patterns emerged that could not occur in the absence of fraud. Patriotic warriors joined together to gather evidence and tell the Left we will not accept a coup and a usurper in the White House.

We all remember when candidate Joe Biden held a rally in downtown Phoenix and precisely zero people attended. Nada. Zilch. It was a clear reflection of the utter lack of popular support in Arizona for Biden. Conversely, President Trump held rallies in Yuma, Bullhead City, Prescott, and several other places and 30,000 people showed up in person on 48 hours notice while millions of others watched online. You could not look out your window without seeing patriots waving flags and declaring their support for President Trump. I travel extensively all over this state. I saw 2 maybe 3 signs for Biden between Yuma and Mohave Counties. Otherwise Arizona was a sea of MAGA 2020.

In short, from the pre-election polls, to Election

Day, to voter enthusiasm, and to the extreme turnout for Republicans statewide, where every contested down ballot race was won by Republicans (with the notable exception of Martha McSally), it was apparent that Trump would win, and indeed did win, Arizona. It was not even close.

I attended a legislative hearing and listened to two expert witnesses familiar with Dominion voting software and voting patterns. They both testified that the Arizona results, particularly in Maricopa County, were altered to take votes from President Trump and give them to Biden. Perhaps one of the more damning testimonies came from Dr. Shiva who presented data showing that based upon demographic distribution of Party affiliations, the only way for Biden to have statistically caught up with Donald Trump was if Democrat votes came in at 130% for Biden and -30% for Trump.

A recent hand count of a random sampling of ballots, ordered by a superior court judge, determined that 3% of the votes in Maricopa County were fraudulently recorded against President Trump and in favor of Biden. Considering that Biden supposedly “won” by .06%, this theft of votes is more than enough to put Arizona in President Trump’s column and restore his lawful and rightful victory.

We can never accept the results of fraud. Our right to vote includes the right to a fair vote count. I will fight to restore the rightful victor, President Trump. Our Constitution, our Republic and our nation demand election integrity. We are not giving up. The President has not conceded and will not concede to a Third World coup d’etat. We have a constitutional republic, not a banana republic.

Please stay strong and pray for our country and the true President of the United States. Be ready to defend the Constitution and the White House.

Paul Anthony Gosar has served as the US Representative for Arizona’s 4th congressional district since 2013.

Pastor’s Letter

accident. The adversaries of our Lord are bent on taking us as far from God’s Word as they can.

The devil knows his fate and knows his judgment day is getting very close. God tells us in Revelation 12:12, “Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! For the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

There is no pathway to forgiveness for him or the angels that chose to follow him, as Jesus’ sacrifice was for all humans that would accept Him. With all the signs that are present today, and with all the attitudes that are getting more and more negative, the call of all true believers up to meet Jesus in the air (Rapture) is right at the doorstep. This will be to keep God’s promise to keep all of the Savior’s flock from going through the Wrath.

“Choose this day whom you will serve” (Joshua 24:15). Tomorrow, this world could be entering the tribulation period which will be the worst and most miserable time this earth has ever seen. All the things taking place today do not come close to being as bad as this will be.

If you are a Christian, it is time to be Salt and Light with all you come in contact.

If you are not a Christian, it’s totally your choice, and no one can make it for you. The best decision you will ever make is to ensure your reservation for eternity with the Savior by calling out for Him to forgive you and accept you as one of His own right now. The rapture will be over in less than a second – the twinkling of an eye – and after that, it will be difficult, to say the least, to come to the Lord. Hope to see you when we get there!

We are so grateful to our Almighty God who has blessed us with so much this past year, a year filled with spiritual fruit in many parts of the world. And we thank Him for you, yes, YOU, because we are called together to fulfill the wonderful plan He has set before us. Thank you for your faithfulness! Happy New Year!

Will the State Get Your Property?

If you die without a will and don't have any family, your property will "escheat" into the state's coffers.

Are you considering the future and what legacy you will leave with the resources God has given you?

Many of God's people want what the Lord Jesus has given them to continue furthering the work of God after they are called home. In their will, many choose to carefully share what God has given them with their family, but also to be generous with continuous service to God's work of faith. They decide to leave a bequest in their will to Today the Bible and You. This is something that can easily be done, taking simple language and incorporating it into their will. They are delighted to be able to continue to pour into ministries like Today the Bible and You, because they see the difference in reaching out through various ministries around the world..

If you feel God is leading you to support us in this outreach, a charitable bequest is one of the easiest and most flexible ways that you can leave a gift to further God's kingdom that will leave a lasting impact. A charitable bequest, put simply, is a gift you give to a charity through your last will and testament.

The benefits of a bequest include the following:

- Receive an estate tax charitable deduction
- Reduce the burden of taxes on your family
- Leave a lasting legacy to Today, the Bible & You

You can include language in your will or trust specifying a gift to be made to family, friends, or Today, the Bible & You as part of your estate plan. Learn more about making charitable bequests to Today the Bible & You by calling

Astronomy Reveals CREATION

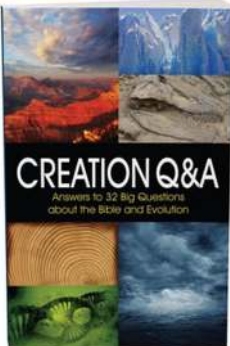

What does astronomy have to say about the truth of the Bible?

Many people use astronomy to challenge Scripture, but what do the heavens actually reveal? Dr. Jason Lisle explores five "secrets of the cosmos" to find out. Throughout his presentation, Dr. Lisle demonstrates how the universe declares the glory of God and how the Bible can be trusted when it discusses the basics of astronomy. It is also accurate when it speaks to the age of the universe, the uniqueness of Earth, and the issue of distant starlight. Dr. Lisle confirms that when we really understand the Bible and the universe, we find that the scientific evidence lines up perfectly with Scripture. When it comes to astronomy - the Bible is right!

The Age of AI

Artificial Intelligence and the Future of Humanity

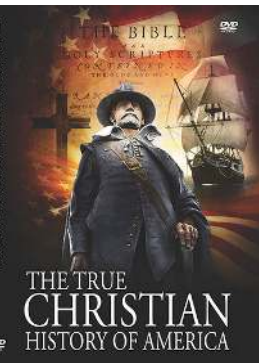

Are robots going to take my job? How are smartphones affecting my kids? Do I need to worry about privacy when I get online or ask Siri for directions? Whatever questions you have about AI, The Age of AI gives you insights on how to navigate this brand-new world as you apply God's ageless truths to your life and future.

Alexa, how is AI changing our world? We interact with artificial intelligence, or AI, nearly every moment of the day without knowing it. From our Twitter and Facebook social media feeds to our online carts to smart thermostats and Alexa and Google Home, AI is everywhere. In The Age of AI, Jason Thacker--associate research fellow at the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission--helps us navigate our digital age in this thoughtful exploration of the social, moral, and ethical challenges of our ongoing interactions with artificial intelligence.

Applying God's Word to this new AI-empowered age, The Age of AI shows us how Christian truth transforms how we use AI in order to love God and our neighbor better. It serves as a guide for those wary of technology's impact on our society and also for those who are enthusiastic about where AI is taking us. Jason explains how AI affects us individually, in our relationships, and in our society at large as he addresses AI's impact on our bodies, sexuality, work, economics, and privacy. With theological depth and a wide awareness of the current trends in AI, Jason is a steady guide reminding us that while AI is changing most things, it does not change the foundations of the Christian faith.

THE TRUE CHRISTIAN HISTORY OF AMERICA

By Christian Pinto
The True Christian History of America is a powerful documentary, showing the Bible-based Christian origins of the early American view of freedom, tracing the principles of liberty back to England and the great Reformation.

For many years, Americans have been taught in our schools and universities that the founding of our Republic was the result of the Enlightenment from France, or from the deists of that time. But is that truly the case? Did the Enlightenment first declare no taxation without representation? Or trial by jury? Were they the champions of freedom of speech, or of the press? And why did Samuel Adams declare that the "reign of political Protestantism" would commence, just before signing the Declaration of Independence?

Filmed on location in the United States, as well as in England, Switzerland, and the Czech Republic, this insightful documentary contains unique interviews with experts from around the world, who relate how the champions of the Gospel pursued the cause of freedom across the centuries, and how it is their beliefs which are enshrined in the Declaration, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

At a time when America and the principles of freedom stand in peril, it has never been more important for the Christian world to reclaim its historic heritage. This documentary is perfect for churches, Bible study groups, homeschool parents, or anyone who desires to learn a detailed history on the influence of Christianity in the United States. 150+ minutes
